"which gave them much trouble."
That is all. We have no letter from Mr. Dennis, at which I marvel as we have specially desired him to write us by first English ma[illegible] aftr the arrival of the ship.
A lettr came to Mr. Coppinger from Woodson — but without one word of any kind except about himself & daughter. No oth[illegible] letters came.

Since I wrote you last
nothing of special consequen[illegible]
has taken place, in our matters.
Mr. Coppinger & family are enjoying the Sea Shore a Cape May. I hope you are improving. Yours faithfully

W. [illegible]
