SATURDAY, JULY 13, 1912

THIS is no time for sulking. Let every Democrat exert his best effort toward the election of Wilson, Marshall, Covington and Constable, and co-operate with any movement looking toward this end.

THE United States would do a commendable act to prohibit such events as occurred last July 4th when a brutal, bruising prize fight was permitted. The sports at Stockholm were in pleasing contrast. America lead by scoring most points.

THAT was a cruel report circulated from Washington that a movement was being made to have both President Taft and Theodore Roosevelt withdraw from the Presidential race in favor of some one that could be elected. Both the G. O. P. "Elephant"—Taft—and the Progressive "Bull Moose"—Roosevelt—are classed as "Dead Ducks" by the onward rush of Woodrow Wilson.

THE Court of Appeals decided Wednesday that the Justices of Peace appointed by Governor Goldsborough, but who were not confirmed by the Senate, are entitled to hold office. The opinion sets forth that the terms of the justices of the peace are for two years, that those of the old justices expired at midnight on May 5 last and that the Governor is given power under the Constitution to fill the vacancies.

"THOU shalt not steal," thunders the modern Moses from Sagamore Hill, and then he enters into negotiations with his friends for stealing electors, for stealing the Republican name for the election of Roosevelt electors, and for trading the support of local tickets for support on the Presidential ticket if any such trading can be done with Democrats. This apostle of the higher political morality appears to be up to every trick of the political trade and to have only a little more scruple than a Tammany boss or a member of our own "corrupt and criminal combination masquerading under the name of Republican."—Phila. Record.

THE Cecil Whig, the Republican organ of Cecil says:

A good many of the endorsements of the action of the Chicago Convention in renominating President Taft, remind us of an experience with a Baltimore barber whom we patronized some years ago. "Good morniug, Jim," as we dropped into the chair of this tonsorial artist, "hear you have been getting married.."

"Yes sir (voice muffled by depressed spirits or an ill-fitting breakfast).

"Well, now, that's nice (no response; gloom thickens).

"When were you married, Jim?"

"Last Sunday a week; and I wisht to God, I hadn't, too."

The point of this story will be found in the application thereof.

THE 11th National Prohibition Convention opened in Atlantic City Wednesday. The feature of the day was the address of the temporary chairman of the convention, Clinton N. Howard, of Rochester, N. Y., known as the "little giant." Mr. Howard aroused the thousand or more delegates to a high pitch of enthusiasm by roundly denouncing President Taft, Colonel Roosevelt and the Republican and Democratic parties in general. He claimed that the prohibitionists were the real progressives in politics and decried any attempt to throw their votes into other channels.

"We already have two whisky parties and don't need another!" he shouted. The delegates caught up and cheered the sentiments of the chairman. When he characterized President Taft as a "wet nurse to the saloons" there were shouts of "amen" from all corners of the convention hall. When he denounced Colonel Roosevelt as "the least desirable of all the candidates," there was a prolonged demonstration of approval. Gov. Woodrow Wilson he disposed of with this faint praise: "A good man, perhaps, but we have had 'good men' in the White House before, and they have gone out with the country more saturated with rum than it was when they went in."

"Now you are talking truth," called a delegate, amid general acclaim.

This man is called a Giant but we would style him a simon-pure pessimist.

TRANSCRIPT CORPORATION AND THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

MESSRS. EDITORS:—An eminent jurist, describing corporations, said they had no bodies to kick nor souls to damn. Had he known the Transcript corporation he could have added that its employes were without brains to comprehend. Not only does the Transcript corporation glory in its stupidity, but it aspires to be the means of stupidity in others, and especially in the rising generation. Its own published article of last week proves that our school expenses are constantly increasing, as the extra expenditures of 1912 over 1911 amounted to $3,471.02, not counting that $43.08 paid out for interest on money borrowed to pay salaries, thus showing over $3,500 increased expenses for 1912 over 1911. But it is absolutely dumb about how the School Board is to meet the extra expenditures for 1913, which is the problem to be solved. One or two new buildings will probably be required annually to keep up the 66 schools in the county, or else rebuild old ones which will be almost as expensive.

Through the influence of the Transcript corporation, the bill to build new school houses in the towns of Kent county was defeated, and these old school houses have now to be repaired at great expense to keep them fit for use, in addition to the sanitation, increased salaries, increased cost of fuel and repairs to other school property. To accomplish this, Mr. Ahern's estimate of about $5,000 seems reasonable.

Caroline county, looked upon as a poorer county than Kent, levies $45,000 for school purposes to Kent's $35,000. This liberal expenditure on the part of Caroline county has caused that county to advance so that in spite of its poorer soil its lands sell higher than Kent lands, notwithstanding the higher natural fertility of our lands. This is due undoubtedly to the higher average of education and intelligence prevailing there. Compare the growth of Kent and Caroline in population:

Year 1900—Caroline	16,248
Year 1910—Caroline	19,216
Increase	2,968
Year 1900—Kent	18,789
Year 1910—Kent	16,957
Decrease	1,829

A community that follows a corporation gorging itself from the public purse, while boasting its stand for ignorance and stupidity, has only itself to blame when, in the midst of a diminishing population, Progress and Prosperity pass it by. The community that prefers the leadership of Corporate Greed and Prejudice rather than Truth and Enlightenment, will suffer the inevitable result of decay and stagnation.

Having been caught and exposed in its effort to impose on the public in representing that the School Board had money on hand to pay teachers' salaries, which proved to be borrowed money, it comes back with the declaration that the money was only a temporary loan (November, 1911, paid July, 1912) which was paid by moneys which have been received since the close of the schools. But it failed to state that this money received after the close of the schools was properly funds that should be used to repair and paint the school property of the county during vacation and to enable the School Board to run the schools the succeeding year. In order to fill up the hole made in the school funds under Superintendent Melvin the Board had to dig into the funds that belonged to the school year of Superintendent Smyth. But the whole cause of the Transcript corporation's course is, it knows it cannot control Prof. Smyth, and that the schools will be run in the interest of the public alone. Of course, a concern that exists for profits only and to gratify greed, can see no virtue in the appointment of a Superintendent of Schools who is both efficient and honest. It sees no prospect of bolstering up a political faction by the use of the public schools.

Oh! but it claims it prevented Mr. Urie from playing politics with the taxpayers' money. Greed and Craft always have an excuse to accomplish their purpose. Judas Iscariot found fault with the use of the precious ointment with which the Saviour was annointed and condemned it as unnecessary, just as the Transcript corporation is now proclaiming that the money needed for the public schools of the county is unnecessary.

Now, what has been the corporation's record on the public school question?

1. Proclaimed that the commissioners (with its commendation) had levied $3,000 for the public schools. Commissioners made no levy through Transcript influence. Misrepresentation No 1.

2. Proclaimed money on hand to pay salaries, hence no reason to increase levy, when in fact $3,500 was borrowed money. Misrepresentation No. 2.

3. Proclaimed money received sufficient to pay this $3,500 deficiency for salaries of the past year, when in fact money not received until after the close of the schools, and taken from the funds that belong to the succeeding year. Misrepresentation No. 3.

Now, on the examination this month of Superintendent Melvin's books by the School Board, the exact amounts of the items of income used under the present superintendent that should properly be in hand for Superintendent Smyth's use next school year, will be given to the county press.

The public will then be able to judge to how great an extent the malignity and craft of the Transcript corporation and its allies have crippled the efficiency of the public schools of the county.

JOHN D. URIE.

PUBLIC SALE

—OF—

Personal Property

THE undersigned, intending to discontinue farming, will sell at public sale, without reserve, on the farm known as the Wm. H. Spry Farm, 3 miles southwest of Sassafras, on the road leading from Wilson's Point Cross Roads to Massey, on

THURSDAY, August 1st, 1912

At 10 o'clock A. M. sharp, the following Personal Property, to wit:

7 Head Horses & Colts

No. 1. Norman gray percheron horse, 8 years old, will weigh about 1300 lbs; the best work horse I ever had hooked by the neck; sound and quick to move.

No. 2. Elmer, gray Percheron mare, 4 years old, sound, will work in all harness. This mare will weigh about 1300 lbs. This pair of horses makes a nice wagon team or any kind of team you want; you need not be afraid of getting stalled with this pair.

No. 3. Bessie, bay Percheron mare, 8 years old, will weigh about 1250 lbs., kind and gentle, will work anywhere and a good brood mare; has had 4 colts in four years, and with foal now by Roy Caulk's black Percheron horse. This mare is a prize for some one.

No. 4. Samuel T., bay horse, 4 years, old, sound and gentle, will work anywhere and will weigh about 1100 lbs.; a stylish driving horse and a good driver, too.

No. 5. Brownie Wilkes, brown horse, 6 years old, 16 hands high, will weigh 1100 lbs.; a good driver, any child can drive him, and a good worker.

No. 6. Prince May Day, brown horse, 16 hands high, 12 years old. This is what you call a driving horse, no road too long for him, and can pull a carriage over the road at a 2.30 clip; a hard horse to pass; will work anywhere, quiet and sound.

No. 7. Florence, sorrel filly, 16 months old. This is the largest colt I ever saw for its age.

14 HEAD OF Guernsey Cows and Heifers

Nine of which are milking now, and the rest are close Springers and Yearlings. This herd of cattle is well worth the attention of a good dairyman. They test higher than any one that goes to the creamery. The test of each cow's milk will be given the day of the sale.

5 HEAD OF HOGS,

will weigh about 275 lbs; TWO BROOD SOWS, with pigs by their side. These are beauties.
