My Dear Sir

Yours of the 17th to me officially — is received. I regret that I blundered so about that note not understanding what is business in such a case — and especially that the few lines I wrote for them should have fallen into your hands —

Touching the matters in the P.S. — I agree with you touching Capt. Scott — & like your suggestions about retaining him — & think it the best thing we can do — But there is one question which comes before that in my thoughts — viz. shall we want a Capt. any more? Can we send the ship
