another voyage! Here are the "premises" — We have now paid all the notes given for the spring expenses, except one for $500.00 & one for $775.50, & we have the money to pay them. We do not owe anything else. We have left $15.000. in U. S. Bonds. Our ordinary receipts are small. If the Pa. Soc. give us $5.000 — or $7.500. that will help us that much. I shall not consent to buy on time as we did last spring. I cannot therefore see where we can get money to send out emigrants enough to justify us in sending the ship. If we dared now to move in the matter of getting the people ready, I have not a doubt that we could fill her the first nov. I believe Mr. Cop-
