LOCAL NOTES

SKIRVEN & STARTT shipped 600 lambs this week.

LIGHTNING killed a mule and horse on Commissioner Melvin's farm, near town.

THE mercury climbed up to 94° Monday and 95° Wednesday. A shower at night helped everything.

THE Sassafras Grange will entertain the Pomona Grange on July 25th on the lawn of Mr. Harry Griffith.

THE joint meeting of Kent and Queen Anne's Boards of Commissioners was held Thursday and transferred Chester bridge to the Good Roads Commission.

THE youngest drummer boy in town is Master William Smith. He plays the snare drum in the band.

HARRY F. OGDEN, of Baltimore, was in Kent this week advertising the Krit automobile. See adv. in another column.

THE engine belonging to Hugh McCloskey while on Mr. Richard Wilson's yard was damaged by accident Thursday.

JAS. H. LEE offers his services in another column as auctioneer. Mr. Lee is a young man of good habits and asks a trial.

LIMA BEANS ripe from Mr. D. B. McMenamin's garden were enjoyed this week by the family. James Rogers is the faithful gardener.

TUESDAY was reunion day for the Brice family at Tolchester. It was a happy occasion enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. James Brice and their children.

THE rain of Thursday did not reach far in Quaker Neck nor in Worton. Mr. S. G. Lee and others threshed wheat yesterday morning.

THE "World's End" farm of the late John Ward Davis, Jr., containing 307 acres of land, situated in Sassafras Neck, was sold at public sale by Edgar J. Davis, executor, at Elkton, on Tuesday to Mr. John R. H. Price for $13,100.

"ROYAL WORCESTER BON-TON CORSETS is the corset for well-groomed women," says A. W. Carmine, of Chestertown, and he is anxious for the ladies of this section to see his display at his store.

CHESTERTOWN is making preparations for the State Convention of P. O. S. of A. on Wednesday and Thursday, August 14 and 15. The sessions will take place in the High School Building. About 500 delegates are expected to be here. A royal welcome awaits them.

THE picnic held Wednesday at Love Point by Christ Church Sunday School was enjoyed by 356 persons. It was a jolly party, congenial and unselfish. Bathing was fine, the breezes delightful and the music enjoyable. The Chestertown Band, lead by Arthur Bacon, made good music and plenty of it.

AMONG the changes in schools this week are these: Prof. Galen Vansant who has been at Hurlock's and who was offered more money to return has accepted the principalship of Church Hill Academy. Prof. Stevens goes to Stevensville High School which pays $1,000. Miss Avis Dodd has been appointed teacher of Pomona school.

A FARMER threshing wheat down near Rock Hall was hauling water for the engine a few days ago and about noon the whole operation was held up for want of water! When Mr. G. arrived with water he did not ask why all hands were resting, but exclaimed, "My, I had a nice swim!" He had stopped hauling water to take a bath.

Will of the Late Benj. Wheeler.—The will of the late Capt. Benj. Wheeler, of Betterton, was filed in the Orphans' Court on Tuesday. It bequeaths all the estate to his son, Wm. B. Wheeler, in fee simple. It also appoints his son executor. The will was made January 12, 1906, and was witnessed by Messrs. Medford H. Crew, James G. Harris and A. L. Harris.

Changes.—The Kemp house, on Washington avenue, now tenanted by Mr. Fred. H. Russell, has been rented by Mr. Samuel Kreeger for next year.

The Aldridge house, on Water street, now occupied by Mr. H. R. Graham, will be tenanted by Mrs. Emma A. Hynson next year.

Mad Dog Scare in Galena.—A dog belonging to Mr. Wm. Holding, of Galena, threw the residents of that town into some excitement Tuesday evening by running about the streets, biting dogs, fighting, etc. A large number of dogs were bitten, but fortunately no persons. After an exciting chase, in which the dog was shot at several times and hit with stones, hammers, etc., it was finally killed by Dr. E. A. Scott by a shot from his gun. The head of the dog has been sent to Dr. Stokes for examination, and if it is found to have rabies it will necessitate the killing of a number of dogs in Galena that were bitten.

Fishing.—Captain Charles Harrison caught fifteen rock on Monday, weighing from 5 to 15½ pounds apiece, off Tolchester, while a gentleman from Baltimore, fishing alone in a small boat, caught 32 big fellows, the largest weighing 15 pounds. The biggest catch of the season off Tolchester was made on Wednesday by Capt. Wm. C. A. Thompson, Messrs. Edward W. Emory and W. F. Wink, of Chestertown, who, with Capt. Spencer Urie as guide, caught 88 fine rock and 12 dozen cull perch.

Fishing at Betterton has also been fine during the week, a number of parties having caught a peach basket full of fine cull perch and rock in each of several days fishing.

It Pays To Insure.—The Buick car of S. Scott Beck, Esq., caught on fire one night last week while in the Sutton garage from some defect in the light on the car, and before it could be extinguished did considerable damage to the machine. It was insured in the company of Mr. J. Arthur Bradley and is now in the city being repainted and repaired at the expense of the insurance company.

Allen, Chelsea, Wis., says: "We prefer Foley's Honey and Tar Compound to other cough medicines because it quickly cures coughs and colds. It will ward off a cold if taken in time."
