Colonization Rooms,
Washington D.C. 21 May. 1868

My Dear Sir

Until ten minutes ago I thought the note of Ramsay was payable at Bank in this City, and was drawing Check to pay — When to my utter amazement I discovered it was due at the 2d National Bank of Baltimore. I immediately telegraphed you to tell him (we have not his full name — in the list of notes sent us, he is entered simply Ramsay — So I could telegraph him) that I send Check today to pay it — hoping that he would withdraw it — & thus save us a protest. I now inclose Check on Am. Ex. Nat. Bk. New York for $775.09 & beg you to hand it to him — and make my explanation to him as above — I would write him but for lack
