& attend to my business in outfitting the emigrants, myself requested Jos or rather Mr. E. W. S. Hall to do it for me. He made the purchases & shipped the things & sent me copy of invoice amounting to $18.767.91. Then as I understand he passed the books & the business into your hands.

We sent him $25.110.00 — & you have received from the earnings of the ship $565.90 — making $25.675.90 — To his invoice add your payments as by this account 18.767.91 / 3.563.31 — $22.331.22 & take that from $25.675.90 & it leaves in your hands $3.344.68, toward the expenses of voyage #D. But for our bookkeeper to make the proper entries, to particular accounts, there should be an
