Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

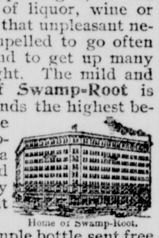

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a brick dust sediment, or settling, stringy or milky appearance often indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back are also symptoms that tell you the kidneys and bladder are out of order and need attention.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills almost every wish in correcting rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. Corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

Home of Swamp-Root.

You may have a sample bottle sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Mention this paper and remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

KENT COUNTIAN IN TROUBLE

Robert M. Catts, of Millington, Marries Dorothy Tennant, The Actress, And is Delayed From Sailing by His First Wife, Miss McWhorter.

Philadelphia, July 7.—Mrs. Ola L. Catts, first wife of Robert M. Catts, formerly of Millington, who secretly married Dorothy Tennant, the actress, is determined that Catts and his bride shall not sail for Europe on their delayed honeymoon unless Catts pays to her a certain amount of money alleged to be due the child of Catts by his first wife, and back alimony.

Mrs. Catts No. 1, accompanied by her brother, Dr. Thomas McWhorter, left here last evening for New York, where they hope to have a talk with Catts and see he means to hand over the money in dispute. Unless that interview is satisfactory to Mrs. Catts No. 1 she threatens to have her former husband arrested, and in that way prevent his departure for Europe. She does not want to break up the honeymoon trip or embarass the second Mrs. Catts, but she is determined to get the money for her daughter.

Before leaving for New York Mrs. Catts discussed her matrimonial and financial affairs freely.

"Mr. Catts and I," she said, "were married on June 29, 1899. We met when he came to our house in Millington, soliciting orders for pictures. We were thrown together, and we eloped, coming to Philadelphia, where we were married in the Arch Street Methodist Church.

"We lived in this city, where Mr. Catts engaged in the real estate business. We were happy several years, and one child, Ethel, was born to us. When we separated Mr. Catts agreed to pay $50 a month for the support of Ethel. The payments were made in an irregular manner, and several months ago they stopped. I have been trying to find Mr. Catts, but have been unsuccessful. My brother and my attorney have been looking for him too.

"Mr. Catts has $5,000 which he received from a life insurance company on a policy on the life of my sister, and in which my daughter Ethel was named as beneficiary. My daughter is entitled to the money, and I propose to see she gets it. That is why I am going to New York. I may embarrass his second wife, but I hope I wont. I feel sorry for her, but, as she is an actress, I presume she is able to take care of herself.

"Mr. Catts was made trustee for my mother's estate and by poor investments our money soon dwindled to nothing. He later brought suit against me for divorce on the ground of desertion. I did not defend the suit, because I did not know anything about it and he received the decree. I appealed to the Superior Court for the custody of my daughter and also for alimony and got both."

Before her marriage the first Mrs. Catts was Miss Ola J. McWhorter, of Millington.

Catts Denies Allegations.

New York, July 7.—Mr. Catts yesterday at his office, at 125 West Forty-second street, denied that there was any truth in his divorced wife's allegations.

"It is true that I wedded my first wife in Maryland 13 years ago, and that we have a daughter 11 years old, whose custody I am seeking on the ground that her mother is unfit to care for her.

"Four years after our marriage I obtained a divorce in Philadelphia. The decree was absolute and provided for no alimony to be paid by me to her. I did, however, send her money at intervals, but it was for the use of our daughter, as my wife is interested in an estate which yielded her a large revenue. I was for a time trustee of her estate, but the Court released me at my own request in 1905."

Mr. Catts said further that his wife was a confirmed invalid and that even if she had any valid claim upon him for alimony she was physically unable to travel to this city. Mr. Catts said their daughter Ethel was in a convent near Philadelphia awaiting the outcome of the proceedings instituted by him for her custody.

DE LAVAL CREAM SEPARATOR

More Than 1,375,000 Are In Use

The Best Investment Any Cow Owner Can Make

That's what nearly a million and a half of cow owners the world over have found the De Laval cream separator to be.

A De Laval farm separator costs from $35 to $160—according to capacity. It saves butter fat and produces a cream of superior quality over any setting system or any other separator every time it is used—twice a day—730 times a year.

It involves far less labor than any setting system, and runs easier, has greater capacity and lasts from two to ten times longer than any other separator.

That's how a De Laval separator saves at least its cost the first year, and frequently in a few months, and then goes right along saving your money year after year.

We have an arrangement whereby you can make a partial payment at time of purchase, and pay the balance on such liberal terms that your machine will more than save its cost while you are paying for it.

Easiest to turn, easiest to wash, skims the cleanest, lasts the longest.

SOONER OR LATER YOU WILL BUY A DE LAVAL
