is interest or to be charged to profit & loss — as the notes give no light. We do know that on one of them there was interest for we had to send the money to pay it, after paying what we supposed was the note. — We have one note for $500.00 yet to pay — adding then the $25.110.00 — & the $14.482.57 it makes the amount we have paid $39.592.37 — against which, to date we have only invoice $18.767.91 & your a/c. of balance voyage C. $3.573.31 & what have we done with the difference —
viz. $17.261.15 —

Yours truly
