My Dear Sir
I have this morning a few lines from you dateless but referring to mine of the 24th which indicate that I did not then make myself clearly understood. Your a/c. of the ending of voyage C. is all sufficient, & there is no objection to our entering it — & we do not want you in that account to "make a show of the full a/c." Indeed that is exactly what we do not want — as it is our way in our books to keep the ship from being mixed up with any thing else. Nor did I mean to ask you for any a/c. of the beginning of voyage D. I was entirely willing, indeed rather glad to have it to be made when finished so that it may appear altogether. What
