LOCAL NOTES

The biggest wheat grower, Mr. Eugene M. Bonwill, only got 26 bushels per acre. He usually gets from 30 to 40.

There are several cases of typhoid reported from Locust Grove. Mrs. Beaston, Mrs. George W. Sutton, Mrs. Gary and others are on the list.

J. P. Decorse left at the News office this week fine samples of his crop of Champion peaches from R. G. Nicholson's nursery. They were beauties.

The farm of Miss Ada Lockwood, situated near Warwick, and containing 221 acres, has been purchased by Richard B. Merritt, Jr., of Warwick, for $17,680.

It is reported that Mr. H. Clay Lusby got an average of nearly 30 bushels of wheat off the Wickes farm, near town. If so, this is the best record in Kent.

Bees have made a good crop of honey up the telephone pole on Lusby's corner, Chestertown. Up to this time Superintendents Nichols and Chaires are letting them "bee," too.

Justice Bryan was called upon Sunday to marry a couple who came up from Tolchester. They had forgotten to get a license and the clerk's office was closed, so that they had to return home.

A threshing machine on the Manlove farm was struck by lightning on Monday night, causing a fire that soon destroyed the machine and two straw ricks. The thresher was owned by John Singer, of Kent county.

The terrific down-pour of rain Sunday night over-flowed the streets of the town. In Denver, Col., 600 people were rendered homeless by a cloud-burst, and 4 million dollars damage done. Other places also suffered.

Some of the residents up-town claim to have cool houses. One man says he has been compelled to sleep under blankets every night this summer. Someone suggests that the blankets must be stored in the third story!

The advertisement of last week stating that A. Cohen was paying 22 cents for eggs was a mistake. He will give a cent higher than market quotations. The public must not blame Mr. Cohen for it was not his mistake.

Lightning struck a large stack of wheat on Wednesday morning last on the farm of Rev. A. P. Prettyman, near Galena, and completely destroyed it. It had not been insured. The other stacks were saved by the help of neighbors.

The biggest event of the season in colored society took place in the Bethel A. M. E. Church, Tuesday night, when Chas. Hutchins, an insurance agent, and Ida Smith, were married. Ushers, brides maids, flower girls and many guests were in full dress and a swell reception held afterward. The presents were numerous.

Although the report of the Standard Oil companies, made public last week, show that during the first six months of the present year dividends aggregating $22,611,628 were realized, the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, the controlling corporation of the "system," on Monday announced that it had found it necessary to advance the price of gasoline from 14½ to 15½ cents a gallon, wholesale, the highest figure this commodity has brought since it was placed on the market.

A new rural line, known as the Broad Neck Rural Telephone Company, was organized on July 15th. This company will operate 11 miles of line on the road between Chestertown and Broad Neck and will furnish service to the following subscribers: H. U. Fletcher, Thomas W. Trew, L. D. Northam, Chas. M. Vickers, M. P. Crew, William Shriley, Samuel J. Vickers and Charles Hague. Mr. H. U. Fletcher is agent for the new company and work will be started at once with the expectation of having the line in operation by August 15th.

The excursion and picnic to Love Point, held Wednesday by the Chestertown and Union M. E. Churches, was well patronized, about 500 enjoying the trip. Bond and Mowbray Churches were well represented also. A pleasing feature of the day was the presentation of a new kettle drum to Master William Smith, "the midget drummer boy," by Dr. L. E. Barrett, on behalf of the excursionists. Capt. Taylor kindly acted as the treasurer of the fund, and purchased the drum in the city. The presentation took place on the homeward trip.

The Chestertown liveryman, Mr. Robt. J. McWhorter, while driving near corner of High and Lynchburg streets in Chestertown one night this week drove across a recently dug gas main and his horse sank down four feet, nearly burying it. After much trouble it was gotten out, but the animal has not been able to work since. Mr. Pharo, the gas manager, volunteered to reimburse Mr. McWhorter for any loss.

At 9 o'clock Wednesday night lightning struck the handsome residence of David D. Taylor, near Centreville, and the building was destroyed by fire. Mr. Taylor and his wife were rendered unconscious by the bolt of lightning. When they recovered consciousness they discovered that the house was burning. They barely had time to rescue their three small children. Their loss is $6,000. The Taylors are now at the home of friends in Centreville.

The Pomona Grange will meet on Mr. Harry Griffith's lawn, Sassafras, next Thursday, July 26th. Mrs. T. E. W. Crew has prepared a fine program of music and addresses. Come and enjoy the day.

Our Home Mill.—Kent county, and especially Chestertown people, may not know it, but we have right here at home one of the most up-to-date roller mills in Maryland. The Radcliffe Mills, now run and owned by P. M. Brooks, formerly operated by Mr. T. H. Topping, is in a position to furnish the very best flour in quantities from 10 lbs. to 100 barrels; bran, chop, cracked corn and meal a specialty. Deal at home.

School Notes.—Miss Josephine Wheatley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Wheatley, and an honor graduate this year of Washington College, has been appointed vice-principal of the Seaford High School, Seaford, Del. We are sorry to lose Miss Josephine from town, but hope it will not be for long. Mr. and Mrs. Wheatley have four children pretty widely scattered, viz.: Mr. William A., Jr., agent at Black's Station; Prof. Chas. F., principal of Piney Neck High School; Miss Bessie, principal of the Still Pond School, and Miss Josephine, appointed to Seaford. Kent should keep her good teachers at home.

Dr. M. Bates Stephens, State Superintendent of Public Education, has just announced the program for the teachers' institutes this year in the counties of Maryland, and the instructors from the Maryland State Normal School, Baltimore, and the Frostburg Normal School. Kent, at Chestertown, October 21-26—Miss Ella V. Ricker and Prof. Willis H. Wilcox, instructors.

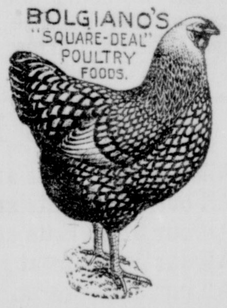

Miss Bertha Jump has resigned as teacher in Chestertown High School. Her engagement to Mr. C. C. Jones has been announced. It is reported that Miss Anna Smyth, teacher in Millington School, will succeed her in town.

"Anybody Can Clean Silver This Way—"

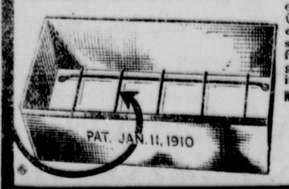

I'm sure"—says the LITTLE HOUSEWIFE. There's no "fussing" with dirty, mussy, injurious "pastes" or powders, no rubbing or "real work" of any kind. It's so much quicker, better and more satisfactory, in every way, than any other Method that you'll really enjoy using the

Silver-Clean Pan

This truly wonderful little home labor-saving device is very simple, yet extremely durable in construction. It quickly and thoroughly cleans any silverware of black and tarnish—without defacing, marring or scratching, or removing one particle of silver—and leaves it bright and new.

The SILVER-CLEAN PAN is a scientific combination of electro-chemical metals. Hot water, with ordinary baking soda and salt, is placed in the PAN—and the silver merely immersed and left for a few minutes—then taken out and wiped dry, when every trace of tarnish will have been removed—WITHOUT RUBBING OR SCOURING.

Thousands of housewives use the SILVER-CLEAN PAN—and what once was a dreaded task is now a pleasure. Hotels, clubs, restaurants and dining cars also employ the PAN. The household size, No. 1, single, (with full, simple directions). Shipped on free trial, express prepaid, for only $1.25. If not found entirely satisfactory, we willingly pay return charges and refund the purchase price. Beware of imitations. None genuine without grid; see arrow. Slabs and other forms injure silverware. The "Silver-Clean" does not.
