Our town was shocked on Saturday morning last to hear of the sudden death of Mrs. Herman Hendrix. Mrs. Hendrix had been in poor health for a number of years, though never confined to her bed. Her husband and friends had persuaded her to go to the sanitarium at Attleboro, Mass., where her daughter, Miss Emma, was a nurse, hoping that a course of treatment would prove beneficial, and Mrs. Hendrix was planning to start in a few days. She awoke in the morning feeling as well as usual, but in a few minutes complained of a smothering sensation Her husband assisted her down stairs, where it was cooler, and called friends to his assistance; but before they could reach him his wife passed away, about 4.30 a. m. She was a member of the S. D. A. Church of this town, a faithful wife and mother, and always ready to lend a helping hand to others. The funeral was held at her late home on Monday at 11 a. m., conducted by Mr. Whaley, Elder of S. D. A. church, at Church Hill. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Eldridge and Leonard Wilson, W. T. Mallalieu, Sam'l Merchant, J. T. Power and Elmer Gordon. The undertaker was Mr. J. L. Smith, interment in Millington cemetery. Mr. Hendrix and Miss Emma have our heartfelt sympathy.

WEDDING BELLS

The wedding of Prof. Walter H. Davis, principal of Rock Hall High School, and Miss Helen E. Downey, the youngest daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Joseph E. Downey, is announced to take place today (Saturday). No cards.

Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, officiated Tuesday at the wedding of Miss Ida A. Englehardt and J. Herman Nolte, both of Baltimore. This couple came to town from Tolchester, were married at the parsonage and returned the same day.

A marriage license has been granted to James A. Jester, of Kent, and Lucila Bailey of Frederick.

NICHOLS—WILSON.

Rev. James L. Nichols, of Grace M. P. Church, Centreville, and Miss Laura Belle Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Wilson, were married at noon Wednesday at the bride's home, near Pocomoke City, by Rev. G. I. Humphries, of that place. The wedding took place under a canopy of wild honeysuckle. Miss Bessie Jones played the wedding march and sang several songs preceding the ceremony. The bride, who is a graduate of the State Normal School, class of 1910, was given away by her brother, Mr. John Wilson, and wore a handsome going-away suit of tan with hat to match. The groom was attended by his college friend, Rev. James H. Straughn, of Laurel, Del.

DIERKER—GEARS.

The marriage of Miss Edna Lillian Gears and Mr. John Richard Dierker, both of Kent, was performed Wednesday evening, July 10th, at the home of the bride's parents, near Fairlee. The ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Thomas Given, at 8 o'clock. The bridesmaid was Miss Edith Johnson and the best man was Mr. William Johnson, both cousins of the bride.

The bride was dressed in blue silk, with lace trimmings, and carried a bouquet of carnations. The bridesmaid was dressed in all-over embroidery and the groom in the conventional black. The house was beautifully decorated in red, white and blue.

TOO MUCH LAND IN GRAIN.

Is Planted by our Farmers—Other Sections Getting big Returns From Other Crops.

Land on the Eastern Shore of Virginia is bringing as high as $800 per acre. This land is used for growing potatoes, the staple crop of that section. Land around Seaford and Bridgeville, in Delaware, is yielding yearly, clear of all expenses, $100 to $200 per acre from the strawberry crop alone. At Seaford, Bridgeville and at the shipping points on the Eastern Shore of Virginia there are buyers from the cities at the railroad that buy the berries and potatoes for cash. The farmer does not have to ship his crop and depend upon a fluctuating market. He leaves home with his crop and returns from the station with the money for that crop in his pocket. The land on the Eastern Shore of Virginia that is commanding big prices for potato growing and the land about Seaford and Bridgeville that is yielding handsome returns from the strawberry crop is no better than the land in Kent.

The wheat crop in this section is very poor; nor is this anything new. While we have good land here this is not the best wheat land by any means. If our farmers would sow less corn and wheat and give more of their land to potatoes and berries they would make more money, the land would be more valuable and this community would be much more prosperous than it is now.

Location and quality of soil should determine the crops a farmer should grow. In many of the coast sections of New England and Canada the inhabitants support themselves by fishing. In many water sections along the Chesapeake Bay the inhabitants are oystermen. In the mountainous sections of Western Maryland the inhabitants are miners who support themselves from the mines. In the central counties of Western Maryland the farmers grow wheat, corn and grass because the land is heavy and shipping points not accessible.

Here we are close to two railroads, two steamboat lines, on two rivers and not many hours from great city markets. The land here is suited especially to grow potatoes, berries and other truck. The time will come when our farmers will realize this; when berries and potatoes will be grown in large quantities, when competitive buyers from city markets will be at the principal stations overbidding one another at the railroad tracks. Our land will grow fair crops of wheat and corn but our location and soil are more adapted for the growing of berries, potatoes and other similar crops. The sooner our farmers realize this the sooner they will prosper as they should prosper. They are making money now, but they can make more money if they will give less attention to grain and more to truck.

In sad, loving remembrance of my beloved grandson, J. WALTER KENDALL, who went home to God one year ago to-day, July 21, 1911.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber,
Peaceful in thy grave so low;
Thou no more will join our number,
Thou no more our sorrow know.
Yet again we hope to meet him
When the day of life is fled;
And in Heaven with joy to greet him,
Where no farewell tears are shed.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Washington Gale Skirven died Monday afternoon at the Richard Gundry Sanatorium, Catonsville, where he had been under treatment for nervous prostration and general debility.

Mr. Skirven was the youngest son of the late Capt. John T. Skirven and Sarah Granger Gale Skirven, of this county. He began farming in 1878 on the Tulip Forest farm where he has made his home ever since bringing the farm up to a high state of cultivation and proving himself a kind neighbor and a helpful citizen.

He was active in grange work and all other organizations looking toward the good of his community. He was an active and faithful member of St. James M. P. Church where for a number of years he was superintendent of the Sunday school.

He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Deihl Skirven; a sister, Mrs. Martha Colesberry, of Philadelphia, and one brother, John Walter Skirven, of this county.

The remains were brought from Baltimore Wednesday, by way of Tolchester, and funeral services held from his late home near Fairlee at 2 o'clock p. m., conducted by Rev. S. B. Treadway assisted by Dr. J. M. Sheridan, Dr. Sharpe and Rev. G. A. Morris; interment in Chester cemetery. The pallbearers were Charles, Frank, Harry, Lewin, Percy and Elmore Skirven. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd.

CHURCH NOTES.

The congregation of St. James M. P. Church are somewhat disturbed over the report that their popular pastor, Rev. G. A. Morris, is wanted at Denton and Newark, two excellent appointments which have to be filled by Sept. 1st.

Rev. L. A. Bennett paster of the new M. P. Church at Milford, received three calls last week from Western churches—the M. P. Church at Lawton, Oklahoma, the People's Church of Keokuk, Iowa, and University Church of Kansas He refused them all.

The Cortland (N. Y.) Standard says: "H. K. Miller, Ph. D., of this city, who recently preached two Sundays for the Jackson Baptist Church, in Tompkins county, has declined a call to its pastorate on the ground that twenty-five years in the ministry places him beyond the "dead line" and entitles him to exemption from its duties. Mr. Miller retired from pastoral work a year ago, on the advice of his physician, in order to lead an outdoor life, and has since been engaged in selling goods on the road for the Baltimore Optical Co."

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, July 21st, as follows: 10.30 a. m., preaching by the pastor, subject: "I Go a Fishing"; 2.15 p. m., Sabbath School and Pastor's Bible Class; 7 p. m., Epworth League Song Service, followed by brief sermon by the pastor, subject: "How a Major General Was Saved." This is the third in the series of twilight sermons. Last Sunday evening, on account of the storm, no service was held, and the subject for that occasion will go over to another time. All invited.

Dr. Graham held regular twilight services Sunday, and there were just 25 who braved the storm.

The Sunday School District Convention met at Wesley Chapel on Sunday. Good singing was a feature. The program, as arranged by Rev. A. B. Dupuy and Dr. Kindley, was as follows:

Rev. W. M. McCann, of Bond Chapel, will exchange pulpits with Rev. Mr. Givens, of Salem, at Fairlee, next Sunday morning and Worton in afternoon. The Salem Sunday school will picnic at Tolchester on July 25th, and Worton at F. B. Rash's on August 7.

Regular services in Emmanuel Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The evening service will be omitted.

The Holy Communion will be administered at St. Andrews' Chapel, Galena, next Sunday at 8 a. m. Morning prayer will be said at Shrewsbury at 10.30.

Regular services will be held in Christ Methodist Protestant Church on Sunday. Preaching by the pastor Rev. Dr. Graham. Subject at 10.30 a. m., "The Singing Pilgrim". Subject at the twilight service 6.30 a. m., "Treasures of Darkness." Mid-week service Thursday evening at 8.00 o' clock.

Advice For the Heated Term.

Here is the hot weather schedule laid down Tuesday by the acting chief of the United States Bureau of Chemistry: "Above all things, don't worry; don't think how hot it is; don't look at the thermometer every two minutes. Just try to forget the weather, and you'll be surprised to find how much less you feel it. All alcoholic drinks, beer, gin, or anything like it, should be avoided. A little ice water is not harmful; also lemonade and soda fountain beverages. The acids and soda in the latter are really beneficial to ward off heat. Possibly one teeny drink, the kind that tinkles in the glass, taken in the evening, is alright.

"Once a day is often enough to eat meat in hot weather—never two or three times. Be sure, too, that any fish or other sea food is absolutely fresh, It and stale milk cause typhoid. Ice-cream, too, is not harmful.

"Moderation in all things, eating and working, is imperative. Take a vacation, sure. If you can't, be sure your wife does; she probably needs it more than you do. Every man, though, ought to take a vacation."
