Dr James Hall
Baltimore.

Dear Sir

At our Executive Committee meeting last evening, a resolution of the Board of Managers of the Penna Col: Society, adopted Sep: 8. and communicated by the Cor: Sec:, Rev Thomas S. Malcom, under date of Sep: 17, nominating "Capt George G. Roberts as Captain of the Golconda, being satisfied with his character as a seaman, a temperance man and a Christian", was read, and the nomination was, on motion, referred to you as Agent of the Society for the ship. This reference is not to be understood as carrying any weight with it.

The Committee decided, with much good feeling, to honor the proposition of Capt: Paul Roberts to give him Cabin passage in the Golconda from Monrovia to Baltimore. Please remit the charge in his case.

Very respectfully Yours, Wm Coppinger
Recording Sec.
