Dear Sir:

I have received a note from a Committee of the "Pennsylvania Colⁿ Society, asking me if I would be willing to take command of the "Ship Golconda" belonging to your society, in case they should be going a Master. I have therefore taken the liberty of writing to you, to inquire if you intend making any change at this time. I am at present engaged in this bank of which the Mess Kaar are the principal Managers. I should be glad to get the ship, but do not wish to be the means of putting any one else out of employment, and should not leave here without being certain of the other. I am personally acquainted with your Mr Geo W Hall, having been in Command of the Barque Cordelia, when Chartered by him for Africa some years ago, and have had
