MIGHTY MICHIGAN WINS SILVER CUP

Finishes Third Of More Than 100 Cars In 108 Mile Race

The following telegram was received at the Michigan factory, in Kalamazoo, July 10th:

"V. L. Palmer:

Michigan Forty finished third in road reliability race—Camden to Wildwood, New Jersey—one hundred and eight miles. Over one hundred cars entered. Pierce Arrow first. Our prize: Silver Cup. Car driven by Dr. Faulkner, of Bridgeton, New Jersey.

E. F. GERBER."

This is one of many similar performances that the Mighty Michigan Forty has given this season.

The even balancing of all parts to match the strength represented by the Mighty Michigan Motor and Chassis is a characteristic which has become distinctive of this Car. It is asserted that this accounts for the sensational success of the Michigan among medium priced cars. It is an illustration of the value of thirty years manufacturing success behind the product.

Dearborns

Our trade has increased so much from year to year on Dearborns that our supply has always run short about this season of the year. We have built a larger quantity this season than ever before, and we now have on hand a liberal supply ready for immediate delivery. They have all Cypress bodies, Oak Riggings and our own wheels. If you are going to need one this season now is the time to order. We will book your order, guarantee delivery later, or we will deliver at once, if you prefer.

Cream Harvesters

Now is the time when you need a Separator. It takes all the impure substances from the milk, saves all the cream, and each cow will make on an average one pound of butter more per week. We have on our floor now the

We have many satisfied users of these machines and they do the work. One gentleman said a short time ago if he could not buy another he would not take $200 for his. We are so well satisfied of its ability to perform all the service we claim for it that we are willing to bring it to your farm and let you use it for a week or ten days, and if you are not fully satisfied we will take the machine away.

You run no risk. We give you full instructions how to operate it and we know you will be satisfied with the results. Can we bring it?

Gasoline Engines

The I. H. C. Engines are so well known here now that we hardly need to elaborate any on the merits of them. We only want to call your attention to the fact that we are still the agents for them and any size, up to and including four-horse power, can be seen at our store.

TURN TO THE RIGHT.

After all that has been published on the subject—after living under generations of tradition bearing on it—it is most astonishing how many persons, driving or walking, disregard that all important injunction, "Turn to the Right." In the interest of safety to all and with special reference to the avoidance of accidents that may be occasioned by automibiles, we call attention to these two points in the rule of the road.

1. If an automobile is approaching in the opposite direction to that in which you are traveling—turn to the right.

2. If the machine is behind you and approaching in the same direction in which you are going—turn to the right.

Observe these simple regulations and you will never have an accident.

THE GRANGERS OUTING

Kent And Queen Anne's Join in a Delightful Picnic in Klinefelter's Woods Near Chestertown, Saturday.

Several hundred farmers and friends representing the granges of Kent and Queen Anne's counties, met in H. H. Klinefelter's woods Saturday and enjoyed their annual picnic. All the committees did their part well and the day was one of rare enjoyment.

A nice shower in the early morning delayed the program somewhat but no one complained. Col. Wm. J. Vannort, presided with his usual grace and dignity and took good-naturedly the jokes on him by several of the speakers.

J. H. C. Legg, Esq., of Centreville, made a happy address of welcome which was ably responded to by Mr. Wm. G. Smyth.

Miss Elsie Funk Mushe, of Baltimore, made a most sensible and practical talk on "Farm Sanitation." She described by means of charts how typhoid fever was carried from farm to farm, how tuberculosis was contracted, etc. She told of a town of 3,000 people in Maryland where there were 69 deaths from typhoid fever and all the result of the carelessness of a woman who had been nursing a case on a farm near town. Miss Mushe was the guest of Miss Ida Crewe.

Mr. Walter B. Miller, of the Good Roads Commission, made a very favorable impression on his audience. He is of striking appearance, ready in speech and experienced in the practical things of life. His talk was earnest and to the point. He will have the co-operation of the farmers in his effort to give us good roads. He was the guest of Mr. M. A. Toulson and came from Salisbury in his machine with John M. Toulson and Mr. Price.

Mrs. Donald Hooker had to remain home to care for her baby and sent in her stead Miss Lola Carson Trax. Miss Trax is from Easton and a former student at Washington College. She spoke on "Why women should be allowed to vote" in a way that held the attention of her large audience and convinced a number of the justice of her cause. Quite a number of well-known politicians were seen wearing "Votes for Women" buttons including Col. Vannort, T. E. W. Crewe, W. I. Walkrr, H. P. Skipper, Jacob Shalleross, Harry Griffith, John Medders, John C. Davis and others.

Prof. N. T. Hull, national grange lecturer, concluded the program with an address full of wit, humor and sense.

Good music was furnished under the direction of Miss Ida Crewe, Mrs. Merrick Clements and Mrs. Geo. Hatcherson.

Exhibits of wheat, fruits and watermelon were furnished and also farm machinery.

Accidents.—Mr. Wm. Davis, employe of Mr. Walter T. Morris, was seriously hurt Monday while assisting in threshoats ing on Churn Creek farm The pair horses got away and threw Mr. Davis out cutting open his nose and injuring his chin. Dr. Simpers took a dozen or more stitches in the nose wound.

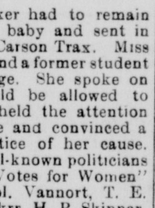

Kicked in the abdomen by a restive horse on his farm near Chestertown, nearly three weeks ago, Alonza Blackway, 19 years old, died Wednesday at the Franklin Square Hospital, where he was taken after the accident William S. Godwin, of Chestertown, a friend of the young man, was notified by the hospital authorities of his death.

Resigned.—Leonard Leary has resigned as teacher in Worton Point.

Prof. Chas. F. Wheatley has resigned as principal of Piney Neck School. He has two places open to him—one in Virginia and another in New Jersey.

THE WIFE'S VACATION.

[Written by a Kent County Grange Lady.]

The question has been asked, "When is the best time for the farmer's wife to have her vacation?" It is rather a difficult one for me to discuss, as I am one of the many unfortunates who never take a vacation. The time never seems just right, for don't we in the long winter evenings, sitting by our comfortable fireside, talk on this very subject and plan and arrange a nice long visit and outing for wife and mother when the weather gets warmer and she feels more like going away from home? But several months hence, when the time comes for this planned trip and the weather is more propitious for traveling, she finds there are many obstacles in the way; perhaps a few early chickens (which later on will die with the gapes, no matter how careful she is of them), or perhaps the colored maid who started in so favorably the first of March has shown a few ugly traits she has heretofore kept so well hidden. Then again, with some of us, there are the children, who look upon mother as their main-stay in everything; she could not possibly be spared; she is really indispensable; the whole farm, as well as household, would miss her; the very sunshine would go out were she not there to console and comfort, smooth the aching brow, speak words of cheer to the little ones with tired limbs after the day's travel over the place. No, it would be most pleasant for wife and mother to go away, but but not at this time.

Then, as the days become warmer and the weather more settled, the farmers wife's thoughts turn to house-cleaning, a time she is accused of loving and being perfectly delighted with by most all of the sterner sex. How little they know how she dreads the time, for isn't there that old matting she has tried to make do for lo, these many summers, hating to make the demand for a new one; then those old shades are awfully faded in the spare chamber, and there is that city cousin who has eyes for all such things so as to criticise later, has promised a visit this summer. And on through all this busy time she is hard at work planning and arranging for the most economical methods of getting things fixed up. By this time she has more poultry on hand, worrying with sitting hens and chasing turkey hens from place to place trying to locate nests, wishing more than once they were all in Guinea.

All this time there is little thought given to vacations, really no time to talk on it. She is too busy during the day and so tired when night comes all she wants is to get to her bed and begin on the little nap only due the busy farmer's wife, for won't day break in an incredibly short time? Then she must be up and doing again at the very same work of the day before, for we all know the wife of the farmer has a very monotonous life. Of course, by this time there is more poultry which partly consists of a large flock of [illegible] young turkeys, and only those of us who have experienced this ordeal know how many anxious moments are spent and useless steps taken in the attempt to raise this delectable fowl.

The season for canning and preserving is now upon her, and we all know there is no time now for a trip; if there was, the weather is too hot. All she wants to do these days is, when there is time, to sit on the shady green lawn where there is always a breeze and enjoy the quiet, that is far preferable to the seashore or mountain resorts, where we must dress three times a day and be constantly on the "go" for fear we would not get our money's worth. And as the cooler weather comes there is more and different work, viz., the potting of butter. For don't we need lots for those delicious buckwheat cakes next winter? And the hog killing time. No one can take the wife's place in that the lard and sausage must be attended to by her.

And so the year goes round with all the above mentioned routine, interspersed occasionally with a friendly visit of our neighbors, a fish-fry picnic or Pomona Grange meeting, which are most enjoyable and tend to vary the monotony until Christmas, when this busy farmer's wife gives a sigh of relief that she has been spared a spell of sickness or weeks spent in nervous prostration over the whole year's mental strain—that of keeping things going in the household with some kind of system, regardless of the fact that the first of March colored maid has been replaced many times by others with other faults. So she is glad to settle down quietly and happily with her own family for the winter months and rest, thanking the Lord things are no worse, and that is all the vacation she wants.

ROAD IMPROVEMENT.

The county commissioners on Tuesday filed applications with the State Road Commission for benefit of the Shoemaker law in aiding to build good roads in Kent. They declared their intention to improve road between Tolchester and Fairlee, a distance of 6 miles, between Betterton and Still Pond, a distance of 5 miles and between Rock Hall and St. Paul's Church, 5 miles.

The property owners along these routes will guarantee the required one-tenth, the State one-half and the county the balance.

There will be available for Kent county out of this fund on October 1st about $7,500. It is reported that the Tolchester end has about $5,000 subscribed by local persons interested.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Lieut. Medford Macaul Rasin, of Newport News, Va., who died last Monday from heart failure aboard a ferryboat on the way to Pine Beach, was a member of the Rasin family of Maryland. He was born at St. Martin's near Still Pond, Kent county, in 1839, and while a youth went to St. Louis to make his home with his uncle, the late Wirt Rasin, father of Mrs. James A.
