LOCAL NOTES

THE labor for Chestertown cannery has arrived.

THE Cosden murderers were hung August 8th, 1851, and not 1857.

THE game Thursday resulted in score of 4 to 3 in favor of Church Hill.

BETTERTON is now in all its glory as a summer resort and is doing a fine business.

The County Commissioners Tuesday awarded the bid for coal to Jefferson D. Bacchus.

"IT works like magic," said a NEWS advertiser Monday when he came in and ordered his lost adv. taken out and paid for same.

THE Ivens restaurant has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Bedford Titter, who will continue the business.

THERE is a department store in Pocomoke City which employs 46 clerks! Chestertown has a basket factory which employs more than this.

B. F. RASH has sold his peaches to Clifton and Woodall for 56 cents per basket. He expects 3,000 baskets off 20 acres. He hauls 170 baskets per load.

THERE were 340 persons who enjoyed the excursion to Atlantic City Tuesday, some of them coming from Eastern Neck Island. There were 511 on the Queen Anne's division.

FINE fishing has been enjoyed off Deep Point by Messrs. Walter Strong, Edw. W. Emory and others. Capt. Spencer Urie has been carrying out parties at Tolchester daily and made fine catches.

THE window of Bordley & Son this week contained a flag which was carried by Philip Reed in the Battle of Caulk's Field, Aug. 31, 1814. It was presented to the Reed Rifles in 1857 by George Handy and is now owned by Milton Baker.

THE Delaware potato record was easily beaten by Robt. A. Kennedy on the Clendaniel farm. He brought to the NEWS office Saturday a heaping basket containing 28 potatoes! This beats the Delaware record. He has 3 acres from which he gathered 700 bushels.

MR. BARTRUS TREW brought to the NEWS office this week a sample of a seedling peach that grew on a tree that came out from the walls of his house in Quaker Neck. They were beauties being a large yellow and free seed. The tree bore about a dozen this year.

H. L. BOYD has sold to Capt. T. H. Pfeffer a 25-foot lot on Main road, near cemetery, for $250. Capt. Pfeffer expects to erect a residence on this lot. Capt. Pfeffer has also purchased of Mrs. Craig her home on Cannon street. Mrs. Craig expects to remove to Baltimore.

E. A. COREY is on a visit to Maine to buy seed potatoes for next year. He will also buy for a number of his neighbors. Mr. Corey's crop off 28 acres averaged 75 cents, his highest price being $1.15 per bushel. He averaged over 200 bushels per acre and got as high as 315 bushels off some acres.

THE sale of Mr. Max Price near Still Pond was largely attended and cows sold "out of sight!" Messrs. Robinson and Jester were on the block and kept things going. Ten cows sold from $68 to $103 each; a suckling calf brought $36 and a young heifer $55. They were fine cattle. The horses brought $160 and $170.

To the delight of the shippers along Chester river the steamer Corsica was started Monday on a new schedule leaving Crumpton and Chestertown Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings. Thus with the Ford a daily boat is assured the farmers. The Corsica with Capt. Vandyke in charge on Monday carried a good lot of peaches.

A PASTOR of one of Kent's local churches preached a strong sermon Sunday morning on "The Bible." He told of the non-use of the Bible and of an instance where a visiting pastor asked a lady for her Bible. She brought it forth and when it was opened the lady exclaimed, "Well, I declare, there's my comb which I've been looking for the past two years!"

ONE thousand stolen chicken in three months is the record of Henry Richardson, a negro of Atlanta. Richardson told the police that his income from the fowls during that time had overaged $100 a month. The negro who has made a full confession to the police, said that he would often steal as many as 50 chickens in a night. He dressed them in the daytime, then sold them at just enough reduction under the market price to have no lifficulty in disposing of them. Is there a negro in Kent or Queen Anne's who can beat this record?

THE scarcity of labor is quite trying and a farmer is put to various methods in order to get his work done. A peach grower in Kent who always appreciates his pastor was more than pleased this week when the preacher came with his two sons and helped him out of a predicament. This parson put on tops like a veteran while one of the boys drove the dearborn and the other picked peaches! This preacher fills his pulpit with ability. "A friend in need is a friend indeed."

The Orphans' Court scholarship at Washington College was awarded Tuesday to A. Leonard Leary, of Rock Hall. He received an average of 93⅔. He is 21 years old and has been teaching in public schools of Kent for 2 years. Herbert Robinson and J. Bayard Parsons each received over 80.
