Colonization Rooms,
Washington, D.C. 22 Oct. 1868

My Dear Sir

By reference to my letter to you of the 8 Feb. 1868 you will see that our offer was to pay the "Md. Col. Soc." interest "say $448.63 per annum, from 1 Jan. 1868, "in semi annual payments." The half of $448.63 is $224.36 – By reference to my letter to you of 28 March 1868 you will see that I inclosed you 20 notes for $234.36 each. By an error of the pen each note was for $10.00 too much. By reference to letter of W. Coppinger to you of 2 July 1868 you will see that we sent you check for $234.36 & you returned us note for same amt. due 1/3 July 1868. I am sorry that this error should have remained so long undiscovered. The only amends I can make is to correct it now. Therefore if you will send us your check for $10.00 – & the unpaid notes, we will make them all right – & save you any further trouble about them.

Yours most Resp.
W. A. Gill Jr. U.S.A.C.
