Philadelphia 23rd October 1868

II A27

Dear Sir

Your favors of the 19th and 21st were duly received, and I must again express my thanks for your kindness and attention.

I think I will leave here on Monday morning at 8.30, which will enable me to reach Baltimore by about 1 Oclk, and allow me an hour or so I presume for what preparation may be needed before departure. I should judge from your last letter that the ship will hardly leave before Tuesday, but I shall be in time for 3 or 4 Oclk on Monday P. M. If you think on the receipt of this that the plan I propose will not be safe please send me a despatch by telegraph to 1518 Chestnut Street, and I will be governed accordingly.

I am very much obliged by your kind invitation to spend Sunday with you, and I assure you it would afford me sincere pleasure to avail myself of it But I can not well be away to morrow and next day and so must deprive myself of the gratification

Very sincerely
Your much obliged
J. Pettit
