II A27 379

Colonization Rooms,
Washington, D.C. 28 Oct. 1868.

My Dear Sir

Yours of the 26th is received with its inclosures —

I have had the big note corrected as you desire — and the others rewritten & made right I believe — I will consider it a great favor and a lasting good done to the cause if you will look them all over, and if there is any blunder or mistake point it out, that we may correct it. As "we are writing for posterity" (See your Orator) it is important to have it in such phrase & form that they will like it —

I inclose receipt for the ten dollars.

Yours faithfully
