Doctor James Hall. Dear Sir

I embrace the moment at command and in penning you a few lines hoping it may find you well. or better than when I heard from you by Rev. J. B. Pinney I hope really you have recovered from the injury you sustained. Since I wrote you last an answer to the letter respecting the Society, I have heard nothing more of it, that was a down right fabrication with no foundation, except that I refused to pass it over to a party who would have added a small amount of repairs to it & held it therefor. I still retain the position of Physician & Agent for the American Colonization Society. The Emigrants per Col Conda voyaged south for this place Eighty three in number have had the fever & convalescent Eight deaths of which 5 were invalids in the last stage of Consumption on their arrival here - Rev. J. B. Pinney went around & done all he could. I know not what was his
