DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mr. Thomas V. Simpson, of Chestertown, has received information of the death of his brother, Dr. George Simpson, in Baltimore, Sunday.

Rev. Herbert F. Wright, pastor of Towson Methodist Protestant Church, and widely known as one of the biggest men is statue in Baltimore county, died Tuesday morning at his home in Towson of blood poisoning. Several months ago Rev. Mr. Wright had a small sore on his neek, which became infected, but later seemed to heal. A carbuncle then formed at the same place and blood poisoning set in. Rev. Mr. Wright was 45 years old and was born at Preston, Caroline county. In addition to the congregation at Towson, Rev. Wright had charges at Chestnut Ridge and at Warren, where his efforts have been marked with success. Everyone in Towson, and, in fact, in that whole section of the country, knew him by sight. He weighed 290 pounds and stood 6 feet 3 inches. A widow and a daughter 5 years old survive him.

Richard W. Jones died at his home near Swan Creek Friday night, aged 87 years. For the past four years this distinguished citizen has been in bed, a great sufferer. He was one of Kent's most highly respected citizens and an influential resident of lower Kent. For many years he was School Commissioner, and in him the teachers all felt they had a warm friend. He was a man of unusual intelligence and of a big heart, and dispensed with lavish hand kindnesses to all who came within his reach. He was a friend to the needy, strength to his community and added his influence to that which was right and just at all times. His wife, who was a Miss Constable, died about ten years ago. He leaves two children, R. Sterling Jones and Mrs. Spencer Harris. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Dempsey; interment in Wesley Chapel cemetery, the bearers being R. S. Jones, Clarence Jones, Ringgold Jones, Spencer Harris, Mason Morfit and Hon. W. W. Beck. Undertaker, Charles L. Dodd.

OBITUARY.

WALBERT.—In sad but loving remembrance of our only and beloved darling, Beatrice Louise, who died July 30, 1912, aged 8 months and 9 days.

In a casket white as snowflakes,
Nestling all among the flowers,
Lies our dainty blue eyed darling,
Who such a little while was ours.

Dear little hands, I miss them so,
All through the day, wherever I go:
All through the night how lonely it seems,
For no dear little hands wake me out of my dreams.

Farewell, dear Beatrice, sad farewell,
The loss to me no tongue can tell;
Your stay on earth was short but sweet,
I hope in heaven we soon shall meet.
Papa and Mama.

Oh, how hard we tried to save her,
Prayers and tears were all in vain;
Happy angels came and bore her
From the world of toil and pain.
Grandpa and Grandma Biggs.

Whenever they speak your loving name,
Our eyes with tears are wet;
Little darling, how we love you,
And love cannot forget.
Dear darling, the Lord took you from us,
It was His holy will;
And left in our hearts a vacancy
Which no one else can fill.
Aunt Mamie and Aunt Alice.

MACALL M. RASIN.

Died at Newport News, Va., August 11th, 1912, Macall Medford Rasin, formerly of Kent County, Maryland, in his 73d year.

Mr. Rasin was the eldest son of Macall Rasin, a member of an old and respected family of Kent County. When a small boy he became a member of the family of his uncle, Unit Rasin, a merchant of St. Louis, Mo., and after leaving school engaged in clerical work at Fort Benton, a government post on the Missouri river, in what is now Montana. When the Civil war came on he enlisted in the Confederate army at St. Louis, as a citizen of Missouri, in the artillery branch of the service, and served in the Western army for about a year when he became a member of the Chesapeake artillery and thereafter served in the army of Northern Virginia to the end, participating in most of the battles fought by that army. He bore the reputation of a gallant soldier, brave in battle, and always ready for action At the close of the war he returned to Maryland and made his home with his brother-in-law, James S. Gemmill.

After the death of Mr. and Mrs. Gemmill he took charge of the farm and managed it with untiring industry and excellent judgment for a number of years, holding the young family together until the marriage of the two elder daughters, when the farm was sold, and he removed to Newport News, Va., and entered into the service of the Furness Withy Steamship Co., in which he continued till his death. He left his room on the morning of the 11th of August to report for duty at Norfolk, Va., but fell dead on the steamer He was buried the next day in Greenlawn cemetery at Newport News.

He was a genial gentleman with a high sense of honor and was faithful in all the relations of life. He is survived by one brother, Capt. Wm. G. Rasin, of Newport News, who was a native of Kent County, and for a number of years after the war, a resident of the County.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

The delegates to the P. O. S. of A. Convention returned on Friday of last week and reported an interesting session of the State Camp. They were exceedingly well pleased with their reception at Chestertown, especially with the entertainment accorded them by Mr Wm. A. Burk. The Camp here has become very much enthused and propose a vigorous campaign to swell the membership to the 100 mark ere the close of the year. The Camp will try so obtain a class of candidates for initiation during October, and have them initiated by a crack team of Baltimore. As the Camp is working under a special dispensation to admit candidates for a nominal fee, all desiring to join this excellent order will do well to enter the class of 20 or more for the October admission. The dues will be $6 per year, which will entitle them to $250 death benefit; or $7.80 dues and $500 death benefit.

Another of Rock Hall's boys has made good by graduating from the oyster bars and fishing grounds to the pulpit. He is George Ashley, now located at Thurmont, Md. He occupied the Seventh Day Adventist Church pulpit on Saturday and Sunday evening. His Sunday discourse was masterly. His subject was "New Evangelism," or "A New Way of Presenting the Old Gospel." George is a fluent speaker and is on the highway to a bright career.

The rain of this week has proved a big boost to crops.

Uncle Sam's boys at Fort Howard, in the estimation of a number of Rock Hallites, were a big nuisance on Monday afternoon with their heavy target practice.

There doesn't seem to be as many "Bull Moosers" down this way as there was two months ago.

Mrs. D. J. Moore, of Christiana, Del., after a short stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A Casey, has returned home accompanied by Misses Catherine and Frances Davis, her nieces. They are now gone to Philadelphia to visit relatives.

To accommodate the increasing business of Thompson. the shoe man, Mr. J. A. Casey is enlarging the store room occupied by Mr. Thompsou.

Mr. S. B. Colyer was taken quite sick on Wednesday and is under the care of Dr. Schwatka.

Prof. Frank A. Greenhawk is spending a two week's vacation at Love Point.

Mrs. Florence Pyle, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Davis, of South Rock Hall.

The stork passed through our town last Saturday evening and left a nice little daughter at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Schwatka.

Miss Alice Norton, of Baltimore, is spending some time with Miss Rose McCormick, on Main street.

Mrs. Harry Wagner, of Edesville, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Victor Buckley, of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Durding, of Baltimore, are the guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Durding.

Rev. J. W. Prettyman, pastor of Rock Hall M. E. Church, left last Monday on a ten-day vacation, which he will spend at Laurelville, Del.

Mr Glanville Stevens, of Tacoma Park, Washington, D. C., is spending some time with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Hynson Carter are spending the week with friends and relatives in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Nannie R. Shalleross, Mrs. Wm. Leary, Mrs. Maggie Downey and Miss Estella Biddle left Monday for Havre de Grace, where they will spend some time with Mr. and Mrs Howard Taylor. They will also visit Atlantic City.

Miss Isabelle M. Frame, daughter of the late James and Clara L. Frame, died Sunday at home in Baltimore. The deceased formerly lived at Hanesville, this county.

COLISON.—On August 13, 1912, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. James A. Pearman, 2117 E. Lombard St., Baltimore, Md., Martha H., age 83 years, 8 months, widow of William H. Colison.

The golden gates were open wide,
A gentle voice said "Come;"
And angels from the other side
Welcomed our mother home.

Though today we are filled with mourning,
Mercy still is on the throne.
With thy smiles of love returning,
We can sing, "Thy Will Be Done."
BY HER DAUGHTERS.

Interment was at Wesley Chapel, Kent County, Md., Friday, August 16, 1912.

KENNARD—In loving memory of our darling daughter, E. Pearl, who died August 21st, 1911.

One long sad year has passed
Since God called our darling home
Leaving our home so lonely and sad
Leaving our hearts so full of despair.

I know she is safe on the Golden Shore
There watching and waiting 'till we shall come
Silently guiding our lives here below
And her beautiful hands are beckening us home.
MOTHER

---

In loving remembrance of our dear daughter and sister, MARTHA EMMA BRYAN, who died four years ago, August 14, 1908.

Ever remembered.
Loving mother and sisters.
CARRIE AND RACHEL.

Mr. Norman Blackiston, who has just finished his four year enlistment in the navy, is visiting his brother, Mr. Claude Blackiston at Pomona. Norman is 6 ft. 3 in. and weighs 195. He has been in the engine room where the thermometer registers from 123 to 160° all the time. He has been on the cruisers Baltimore, Texas and three torpedo boats. He has four months in which to decide as to re-inlistment. Mr. Douglas Blackiston, his younger brother, enlisted about a year ago and is making good.

Mr. James T. Hurlock and wife, formerly of Kennebyville, but now of Wilmington, Del., are guests of his sisters, Mrs. J. L. Price and Mrs. John Archibald, of Kent. Mr. Hurlock is connected with the Home Health Society of Philadelphia and New, York and is making a success of the work by strict integrity and industry. Starting at the bottom with this firm, he is now their head field manager, and his name is known to hundreds of people all over this peninsula as a hustler and a true gentleman. We wish he may have continued sucoess.

Miss Jessie Wink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wink, near Chestertown, delightfully entertained a large company of young people at her home on Tuesday evening. The beautiful moonlight night, and the lawn trimmed with numerous japanese lanterns, was indeed a sight long to be remembered. At a late hour refreshments were served.

Mr. W. Tylden Brice, of near Lankford, is able to be about again after a very severe rheumatic spell of sickness.

J. D. Urie, Esq., has been appointed a delegate by the governor to the Deeper Waterways Convention to be held in Connecticut next month.

Miss Palmer Carroll has been visiting friends in Pocomoke City.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee G. Holleman, of Anderson, S. C., are guests of Mrs. H.'s mother, Mrs. S. A. Copper, and sister, Mrs. H. B. Rote, on High street. Mr. Anderson is now Mayor of that thriving Southern city, having been elected by a big majority at the recent municipal election.

Dr. L. E. Barrett and wife are enjoying the week at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Annie Hayes and grand-daughter, Anna Perkins, are spending the week at Atlantic City.

Mr. Clarence Lecates, of Wilmington, is spending two weeks with relatives in Chestertown.

Miss Etta Matthews, of Port Deposit, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jones, at the college.

Mrs. Wm. J. Vannort returned this week from a protracted visit to Baltimore greatly improved in health.

Mr. J. W. Chapman is spending a few days at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Edith Kerr, of Baltimore, has been the guest of Rock Hall relatives the past week.

Mrs. Horace W. Beck, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Richard Gundry, of Catonsville, Md., have beeen guests this week of Mrs. W. Frank Hines, Chestertown.

Word was received this week from Grand Junction, Colorado, that Mr. Geo. Hazel had died suddenly. He was a brother of Mr. Benj. Hazel, of Millington, and married Miss Della Massey, of Millington. He leaves one daughter.

Mr. E. P. Calderhead one of the saved of the Titanic, is stopping at the Hotel Idlewhile, Betterton. He is connected with Gimbel Bros., in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Bennett have as their guest, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Loudenslagee, of Philadelphia. Mrs. L. was formerly Miss Jennie Bimoda, of 813 N. Broad St., Philadelphia, and is an aunt of Mrs. Bennett

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Mills, of Camden N. J., have been guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Plummer, near Melitota.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Joyner, of Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs Frank Truitt and two interesting children, of Baltimore, are the guests of Mrs. Emma Fowler, of Flatland.

Dr. W. O. Selby and family attended the meeting of the Northern Convocation of the Diocese of Easton at Shrewsbury Church on Wednesday, accompanied by the Rev. T. Manly Sharpe, who preached a most interesting sermon to a large and appreciative audience The trip was made in the doctor's touring car.

Henry Baker, Esq., and family, of Baltimore, have been guests of the former's parents at Pomona.

Miss Nannie Gale, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. Geo. W. Hatcherson.

Mr. Robert Brown has rented the Snitcher farm in Queen Anne's from which Mr. Chas. Baxter removes.

Rev. E. A. Lexsmith, of Delta, Pa., has been called to Pocomoke M. P. Church, to take the place made vacant by Rev. Mr. Humphries leaving.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Starr, of Pomona, gave a supper on Wednesday evening to a few friends in honor of Mrs. Starr's brother, Mr. E F. Mellott, of Whip Cove, Pa, who is visiting them. Those present were Mr and Mrs. Woodmender and family, Mr. McCann, wife and son. A sumptuous supper was served at 6 o'clock and at 9 the cantaloupes were enjoyed.

Mr. A. J. Brown, District President of Hancock, Md's. P. O. S. of A., spent Thursday night of last week with Mr. and Mrs. Starr. Mr. Brown and Mrs. Starr were formerly acquainted but had not met for 18 years, of course there was lots to talk about old times.

The regular session of Christ M. P. Church Sunday school was made specially interesting by an address by Master Lewin Davis, of Cumberland.

The cornerstone of the new church being erected by the congregation of St. Paul's Methodist Protestant Church Cambridge, was laid Sunday afternoon with appropriate ceremonies. The building which replaces a frame structure on the same site, is to be of Port Deposit granite, trimmed with Indiana limestone. The main auditorium will seat 300 persons. The Sunday school room, which can be thrown into it, will seat the same number, thus giving a capacity of 600 persons.

The Northern Convocation of the diocese of Easton held its Summer Meeting at Shrewsberry on Tuesday and Wednesday, August 20 and 21st. Fine weather and the well-known hospitality of the Old Parish helped to increase the attendance which was very good throughont the whole session. The first service was held on Tuesday night when the Dean, Rev. W. A. Coale, preached. On Wednesday the Holy Communion was celebrated and the Rev. Dr. Sharpe delivered the sermon. After service a bountiful lunch was spread under the old oaks on the church lawn and enjoyed by all present. A short service was held in the afternoon and the Rev. T. T. Hepburn delivered an address on Missions laying special stress on the obligation of giving liberally to Diocesan Missions.
