If you should see Mr. Roberts, please to speak to him of the Mills Monument. I should have consigned it to him, but I knew of his absence in this country. I believe that I had the honor to nominate that blessed man to the Presidency of our College — an institution which will shine as a Light House for a thousand years.

Wishing you health, prosperity and active usefulness to a good old age, — I am,

dear Sir,

Very respectfully,

Your fellow serv't.
