specially myself — He said he did not ask for his wife & servant — but for himself. I asked him to put it in writing to the Ex. Com. He said he would. But it seems he changed his mind afterward. But if you will refer to Mr. Coppinger's letter to you of 30 Oct. 1868 you will see that the Ex. Com. only agreed to give him free passage & Mr. Coppinger authorised you to remit "only" his passage. I return you his note that you may collect of him the balance, & give us orders to fix the entries from your a/c. accordingly.

Item 5th — I am sorry that you have so entirely misapprehended my remarks about the $150.00 — & I cannot possibly understand from what you now say
