Col. Rooms,
Washington, D.C. 22 Dec. 1868

My Dear Sir

Yours of the 21st is received with its inclosure. I reckon we can manage to make the entries in our books correctly — and we shall not desire you to make a new draft.

The ship news is troable enough for you & us too. The more I think about it the worse it seems.

I am sorry to hear what you say of your health. And I wish I could go with you to Cuba. I suffer more than I can tell in this cold weather —

Yours
W. McLain
