should show what the emigrants cost us on ship and as well as during their acclimation in Liberia. To this end have the goodness to inform us about what proportion of the $8.222.78 disbursed for "Provisions, Water, Fuel &c", was for Emigrants by the last voyage out of the Golconda. I am aware that this must be necessarily a general estimate, and am prepared to accept and use it as such.

Regretting the unfavorable state of your health, and with assurance of hearty best wishes, I am,

Very respectfully Yours,

Wm Coppinger

P. S. The accounts enclosed, being referred to in our Journal entries of them, ought to be on file in this office. Please let us have them when you are done with them. W. C.
