Dr. James Hall
Baltimore

Dear Sir I received your letter of Dec. 22d after it have been detaind seven days in Brown Shipley & Co. office though as everything had been don that could be befor its arrival I could not have chanced anything if desired. I note what you say with regard to repairs not only for the voyage home but for future service you have no doubt befor this ascertained from my former letters what repairs have been made and I shall be able to inform you when the ship arrives home what she can do hereafter. The ship is now cleared at the customhouse and I intend to sail to morrow noon if pasible to get out the cargo will be all in to night. I am loading her to 19-6. say Nineteen feet six inches by agreement with the charterers agents as a full and compleat cargo. I herewith send you my account of disbursements at Liverpool. leaving a balance against my wages of £20-19. Mess. Rathbone Brothers & Co will forward you the ships accounts and pappers as soon as all bills are paid I cannot remain
