My Dear Sir

Yours of the 22d. is rec.
If "George" had answered mine of the 18th it would have been evidence of his kind intentions, but if he was no more explicit & comprehensible than our yours of the 12th 19th & 22d I should not been much the wiser. In yours of the 12th you speak of "1.500 lbs. in March", but in yours of 19th of only 350. March 1st & in the 22d of "1.300 more remaining due for outfit here & repairs." As matter of convenience we should like to know how much — & the day payable. We can understand that the expenses inward "cannot be less than 3.000." & that the day of his coming is not certain. But
