SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1912

It seems that often a good life must be sacrificed to arouse the dormant consciences of the people in order that a great evil may be eradicated. Such will be the death of George C. Morrison, the financier, lawyer and politician, whose connection with the Havre de Grace race track was made public and is said to have caused him to commit suicide. This man must have had a sensitive conscience but fell prey to evil associates in the person of politicians and gamblers. Among the sentences in his last statement was this: "I seldom go to the races because it is contrary to public opinion in this beautiful land."

A race track such as was banished from Elkton and now appears in Harford is a stench in the nostrils of Marylanders. It is not the track, but the following of gamblers, rogues, bad women with young men started on the downward road, homes broken up and women and men ruined.

Every gambling race track in the State should be put out of business, and at once.

"OUR HARMONY IDEA."

MESSRS. EDITORS KENT NEWS:—

The Barroll Organ of Sept 7, 1912 contained the following heading, Mr. Dodd's Harmony Idea, and began as follows by saying, "if Mr. Dodd had been as accurate in his statements in Baltimore at the meeting of the State Central Committee as he should have been, he might have said in speaking of the organization of the Woodrow Wilson Club, that his faction undertook to hog that just as they do everything else. They advertised their call for the meeting in the KENT NEWS and never said beans to the Transcript about calling a meeting."

Judging from this they have well defined their patriotism and love of party. Advertise with us and we are yours to serve ("$$$$$")

Now Messrs. Editors as they represent every species of the hog or swine breed and are so saturated with the inoculation of hog virus it is just impossible for them to conceive of anything but hogging and squealing, perhaps the mistake made was not to consult them what I should do. If I had asked for time in my statement perhaps I could have given in detail all the facts and occurrences of recent date eminating from this character assassin, dollarized, and money-crazed sheet. We could have informed the Committee of their premeditated treachery to Wilson when first they went to Baltimore in June, how for position and place they were willing to barter and deal with the Baltimore City Organization. The State Organization having no confidence in them they returned empty and disappointed and continue to growl! Was it not a fact the Wilson leaders could not get them to meet with them?

Judas Iscariot still lives They bartering and conniving to deal Wilson for representation to the National Convention. They further state Mr. Dodd might have told the State Central Committee while he was making his little speech that not a single member of that Woodrow Wilson Club has contributed 1c to the Campaign fund which the Transcript has raised for Gov. Wilson. Another lie told.

Is this to be the measure of our Democracy or of Harmony—if the members of the Woodrow Wilson Club elect to contribute their money to the Club and thence to distribute same to the heads of the State Campaign's Committees, why should this be questioned? Was it Love of Wilson that prompted or inspired the action of the Barroll Organ? No. What then? Position, place. I don't believe Woodrow Wilson is the cheap guy they have attempted to stamp him. Place-mad and money-crazed—hence their question of every motive other than their own.

I am frank to say knowing what some knew about the past handling of funds as reported and filed at the Court house by the Barroll agency of November 1911, what guarantee would we have had of the proper distribution of said funds? For the enlightenment of the public we give this report verbatim as filed with the clerk of the Circuit Court Nov. 1911.

In other words let the public know the items for which this was paid or spent. The law requires it. The people's business is to know this and demand that you should and shall comply with law and order.

If the moneys of the amounts above had perhaps been used in the legitimate channel some of the bills guaranteed by Geo E. Noland, chairman of the State Central Committee would have been paid but were turned down by the Boss. What does this report mean? Would any reputable business house or banking institution accept such a statement; yet these very names, some of whom are on different boards as directors, and so far as I know their acts are not questioned as such; but in this report it is passed over, with the idea no one will ever know or question same. Have they complied with the Law? No.

They have in every way absolutely ignored all law and precedent. No man with proper thought and appreciation of his duties and responsibilities would compromise himself to file such a report. Neither would anyone connected in any way whatsoever stultify himself by being a party connected with it having a proper conception of duty. $60 paid to ——. What was it paid for. Let them tell.

Mr voter, be you preacher, judge, lawyer, mechanic, farmer, oysterman or capitalist would you pay your dry goods, blacksmith, grocery or hardware bill made out in such manner? Mr. Barroll would not accept such a bill. Neither would the court pass such, and if we elect to pay our moneys in channels other than through the source of the Transcript or Barroll organ are we to be censured and criticised in the light of above facts.

For the truth and facts concerning my statement in Baltimore in the light of the support we received at the hands of the State organization irrespective of faction, the solid support of every county in the State and Baltimore city and congratulations from the majority of representative members of the party, we feel vindicated in our position taken and would advise the swelled head pigmys of Mr. Barroll's to butt their heads and to remember the first requisite to success is to inspire confidence to those higher up in order to attain recognition which we are proud of the fact we now enjoy as exemplified by the recent State meeting.

Mr. Barroll had evidently rehearsed his little representatives that he sent to Baltimore, Messrs. Morris and Collins, but the way they have been schooled and the ways of their master don't figure or count with the gentlemen of the State and City Organization. One of the first requisites when approaching gentlemen or party leaders is politeness and to convince your superiors and fellow associates that you are acting on the square but evidently judging from the results of the meeting they were short in right ways. It was really pitiable after the meeting was over to see how soon they disappeared, they just seemed to drop away like snails with salt on them. Or more like the old colored friend's ghost when asked what became of it, when describing the ghost crossing the road, said, "Boss, tell you the truth it just banished." Likewise Mr. Morris and Collins just "banished."

As a member of the State Central Committee when a meeting is called even if I am the minority member, common courtesy and respect for others rights and the law, you would think would prompt them to notify the members of a meeting, only two instances with me have they done so and if they are satisfied to be directed and driven by Mr. Barroll to act separate from us and to meet without a full representation we submit. Having the recognition of the State and City Organization with us we rest satisfied with recent events.

"AS TO CONTRIBUTIONS OF FORMER DATES"

Did they give in Covington's campaign only in a few isolated cases. Mr. Barroll was called upon in each of Covington's campaigns but refused to give in the first campaign and in the second campaign promised but never gave, perhaps he forgot, being a busy man. Many others of the Barroll stamp never responded, those that did give at the time better not let him know of it. Of course there are some exceptions as we concede all of his following are not necessarily his underlings, proof of such is in the campaign for Judge. But not so as to the little "me toos" that do only as directed by Mr. Barroll, having no independence or individuality, driven and damned at will, as he thinks, so they act, driven and goaded as the oxman drives his steers.

The Barroll organ did give to the Covington campaign but forced only by the fact of the enormous amount received by them under and in the name of the Law. This same work could and would be done if competed for, for one-half the money they now receive.

But in behalf of the people have they ever advocated the repeal of the "Law" that enables them to grind from the taxpayers the enormous sum they do in the name of the law, for which the taxpayers receive very little benefit, if any. Mr. taxpayer, you ought to see who comprises this Corporation known as the Barroll organ under the name of the Transcript.

Some of them are very fine gentlemen and perhaps they really do not know the amount this sheet the Transcript or rather the Barroll organ receives from the county, every body knows the head of it and perhaps you can judge the beneficiary. "The Barroll organ's loyalty and devotion to the party is in the measure of the GRIST brought to THEIR MILL with no bran or toll for the TAXPAYER."

FACTS IN SCHOOL MATTERS

KENNEDYVILLE, MD., September 16, 1912.

To the Honorable County Commissioners of Kent County, Md.:

GENTLEMEN: Many have urged me to make a statement of the receipts and disbursements of the public schools of Kent county, covering several years.

I have not thought this necessary, inasmuch as such a statement, approved by the School Commissioners and by the Auditing Committee, has been published from year to year. But, as I am assured some further statement is desired, I submit to you the following:

During the seven years that I was Superintendent of Schools there was a necessary increase of expenses caused by the increase of the number of teachers, by the increase in the salary of each teacher in the county, by repairing or building school houses, by supplying schools with better blackboards and furniture, by furnishing excellent maps and good globes, by improving the sanitary condition of the school premises, by assisting in establishing circulating libraries, and in various ways adding to the comfort of the pupils, and increasing the efficiency of the schools. With one exception, the increase in expenditures has been foreseen at the beginning of each year, and has been frankly stated to the County Commissioners, who have always levied the amount estimated as necessary for the schools.

In more than one case the money spent during the year has been greater than the receipts for the current year, but in no case has it been more than the receipts plus the balance left from the preceding year. The School Board has always closed the year free from debt.

Except in emergencies, involving small sums only, no bills to be paid from the general fund have been contracted by the individual commissioners or by the Superintendent. Expenditures thus authorized by individual commissioners or by the Superintendent were reported at a subsequent meeting of the board, and were approved by all the members present. All ordinary purchases of books were made by the Superintendent from approved lists, at contract prices, the most favorable that the School Board could obtain. Anything unusual, such as maps for the school or professional books for the teachers' desks, were bought upon the order of the School Board.

The School Commissioners are all successful business men, and they have used the same judgment, carefulness and economy in using the county's money that characterizes them in their private business transactions.

The public has demanded more and more of the schools, and the schools have cost more and more.

That you may see the classes of expenses that have increases, I append a statement covering the last four years.

Actual Disbursements	53,540 65	58,386,90	58 436.53	63,088.18

In compiling the above I have omitted from both receipts and disbursements all money borrowed and repaid, leaving the interest paid in the column of disbursements. "Freight and hauling" have been included with "incidentals." The salaries of teachers of manual training and the teacher of commercial department have been carried to the general salary account.

Respectfully,
MILTON MELVIN,
Former Superintendent of Schools.

The above statement is correct, but were the receipts enumerated they would show an increased appropriation by the Board of County Commissioners of $5,000 00 for each of the years 1909 and 1910.

This makes the receipts for 1909 (inc. ext. app)	$55,319 57
The Disbursements 1909	53,540 65
Excess for year 1909	$ 1,778 92
The Receipts for 1910 (inc. ext. app)	$60,333 35
The Disbursements	58,386 90
Excess for year 1910	$ 1,946.45
The Receipts for 1911 (without ext. app)	$57,744 97
The Disbursements	58,436 53
Deficiency for 1911	$ 691.56
The Receipts for 1912 (without ext. app.)	$63,260.80
The Disbursements 1912	59,778 60
Deficiency for 1912	$ 3,482 11

This shows that a Deficiency occurred in 1911, the first year that the School Board attempted to meet the increased expenses upon the same sum of money appropriated by the Board of County Commissioners that they did the preceding year.

In 1912 with the same appropriation by the Board of County Commissioners as in 1910 there was a deficiency of $3,482 11.

This is all involved in the above statement and shows that as the Deficit in 1911 was $691.56, and in 1912 $3482.11, it is evident that with the increased expenses for the present year (including coal, sanitation, &c.) that the deficit will be from $5,000 00 to $7,000 00 if the schools run the full year.

Respectfully,
JEFFERSON L. SMYTH,
Superintendent of Schools.

As a brief illustration or proof of their money craze and greed they attempted to demand extra compensation for publishing the Road account under the present Law, as they left it out of the Levy. Heretofore road accounts were published in Levy. (Amount paid Transcript $500.) Mind you all this in the name of the taxpayers interest; in other words their idea is the more they exact from the county treasury the better you are off Mr. Taxpayer. Works somewhat like the tariff argument. Their interest in you, Mr. Taxpayer, is about like the interest the spider has for the fly to entangle you in the net that tightens like the mill that grinds until their insatiate greed has exacted the last drop from your very vitals.

We only have mentioned a few of the many important things that should awaken the people to the real and vital facts concerning every taxpayer and citizen interested in the welfare of his home and county and appeal to you to act as men; shake from you the shackles of a tyrant and insist that virtue, truth and character, of which the bed rock of character is in truth, shall forever be the requisite to permanent success and respect of your fellows and associates, and respectfully recommend to the Barroll organ's little editors to hereafter speak the truth.

CHAS. L. DODD.

Prompt Settlement.

To The Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Kent County, Maryland.

GENTLEMEN:—I am very much pleased with the very prompt settlement which your Company made with me today. My mill was destroyed by lightning on the early morning of Sept. 7th, 1912, and to-day I received check for the full amount of my insurance, $1300, also check for $93.25 balance due me on cancelling my policy, about 50 per cent. of the amount paid to the Company for the insurance.

Yours truly,
J. C. HAGGERTY.
