FINAL ROUND-UP OF ALL
Summer Merchandise

Not much of an assortment left, as we disposed of all Spring and Summer lines more successfully than usual.

Yet we have a fair range in MEN'S and CHILDREN'S SUITS, and will make very attractive prices on same.

STRAW HATS, and like merchandise were sold down very low, hence not much of an assortment left.

We are now displaying the new styles in and in a short while will have on exhibition our usual large assortment, attractively priced, line of SUITS and OVERCOATS.

FALL HATS and CAPS

Respectfully,

Moody & Lusby

Directly Opposite Court House,

Chestertown, Maryland

LOCAL NOTES

S. HICKS chaperoned a party of gunners Tuesday afternoon and they returned with 39 doves. How could they help it when there were scores of them flying.

THIS community was surprised Tuesday to learn that Mr. Thos. W. Plummer, tenant on the Toulson farm in Quaker Neck had suddenly disappeared the week before and all work on the farm was at a stand-still. He was heard from Tuesday, by one of his brothers the letter being written in St. Louis. He gave directions as to the disposition of his property.

THE Sheriff's desk in the jail was robbed of $29 one day this week.

A SPLENDID framed picture of Gov. Woodrow Wilson is hanging in Clerk James T. Dixon's office in the Court House. It is much admired and is a fine likeness of the next President of the United States.

BETTERTON was the scene of a run-away accident last Friday afternoon that nearly missed fearful and fatal results. Mr. Edw. Smith, driving a four horse team, loaded with 128 crates of grapes, was going down Ericsson hill when the horses began to run and became unmanagable. Finally one of the wheels was crushed and Mr. Smith was thrown with great force to the ground. Four small children were seated with the driver and these were all dashed against the freight house or waiting room. The horror-stricken spectators gasped as they witnessed the sight feeling certain that all the little ones were crushed to death. Fortunately, however, none were seriously hurt. Dr. L. Atwell, being in the villiage, was hurried to the scene and rendered medical attention. The team and grapes belonged to Mr. B F. Rash, of Worton.

THE big Wild West show is billed to show in J. G. Usilton's lot Monday Sept. 30. They claim to travel on 15 big cars and carry 400 people and horses.

THE show here last week had an audience of 2400 at night. Who says Chestertown is not a good show town. Why can't the Chautauqua do as well or even better?

IN a close contest Saturday Middletown defeated the Blackway team from Chestertown by score of 3 to 2. The boys claim they got a raw deal from the umpire. Blackway and Brown were the stellar performers for the locals. The pitching of "Reds" Scarborough featured for Middletown. Batteries—Chestertown, Blackway and Robinson, Middletown, Scarborough and B. Gibbs.

WHILE being driven to Denton from Bridgeville, Del., early Monday morning Brownie J., a noted trotting horse, owned by Henry W. Hughes, dropped dead in the road near Andersontown. Brownie J. had won the free-for-all race at the track in Bridgeville on Friday afternoon in the most exciting event of an interesting card. Mr. Hughes refused a tempting offer for him after the race.

SURROUNDED by four generation of their descendants Mr. and Mrs. John D. Carter, of Townsend, Del., Sunday celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage at the home of their daughter, Mrs. I. T. Dooley, 846 West Baltimore street, Baltimore. A dinner was given Mr. and Mrs. Carter, who are visiting Baltimore for the first time in several years. Besides the guests of honor, those present were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Dooley, two grandchildren, James W. Doo[illegible]d Mrs. Annie Wright, and two great-grandchildren, I. Dauphin Dooley and Imogene Wright. Mr. Carter was for a number of years a resident of Kent county. Six years ago he removed to Townsend, which was named for Mrs Carter's father, who was known as the "Peach King of Delaware." After a short trip to Western Maryland, Mr. and Mrs. Carter will visit their old home in this county before returning to Delaware.

THE Marvil Package Company shipped by Adams Express one day last week a full car load of peach baskets to a New York customer. The express charges amounted to $549.90. It was the largest express consignment ever shipped from this town.

LOCAL buyers are offering ten and twelve cents per basket for keiffers.

WHILE cranking Mr. E. S. Valliant's auto one day last week at his home, Mr. John McRochester accidentally was struck by the crank handle and had his right arm broken at the wrist. It is now mending slowly.

J. T. QUINN is busy baling hay and straw and says the farmers are realizing good prices for both.

THE lower part of High street gets prettier and prettier as each improvement follows. Wm. R. Aldridge started the sodding of the bank and Hon. Joseph A. Wickes, Joel R. Clements, Dr. Chas. R. Twilley and others quickly joined in the work. The climax comes at the foot of the street where Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard's extensive improvements have elevated the tone of the whole surroundings.

THE R. B. Homer Lumber Company, of Baltimore, has petitioned the Inter-State Commerce Commission to establish a rate of 14½ cents on lumber from Amelia, Va., to Millington, Md. It also asks that a refund for overcharge on a lumber shipment be ordered.

THE races at Worton last Saturday proved interesting. The winners were Lady Thompson, best time 2 21; Nelly Moko, 2.32; Kitty Knight 2.38; Susie A., 2 42½. There were 12 horses in the races.

Opening of The Campaign
In Kent County.

An enthusiastic Democratic Meeting under the auspices of the Wilson and Marshall Club of Kent county, will be held at FIREMEN'S HALL, Chestertown, on at 7.30 o'clock P. M.

JOHN F. MALLOY, ESQ., and ARMON D. CHAYTOR, JR., ESQ., of Wilmington, Del., will be present and make able addresses.

Good music by the Chestertown Cornet Band.

We are marching on to victory.

Everybody cordially invited — come and join the procession.

WM. F. RUSSELL, Pres't.
HERBERT E. PERKINS, Sect'y.

ONE of the finest sprays of apples hang in the NEWS office. They came from Mr. Bartus Trew's farm in Quaker Neck. The twig measures 14 inches on hich there are ten big apples.

HARRY'S LATEST fish story is contained in the following from Annapolis: "While fishing Tuesday from the county bridge which spans the Severn River, W. H. Lambert, Jr., a watchman in the Court of Appeals Building, in this city, landed what was probably the biggest rock that inhabited the river. The fish weighed 12 pounds and was 32 inches long."

THE schools opened Monday with the usual attendance. There was one school, however, in Talbot which did not open according to the Easton Gazette which says:

"Can anybody inform the Talbot Board of School Commissioners the whereabouts of one Mr. J. Lewin Burris? County Superintendent Nicholas Orem would also like to know the address of this young man. He graduated at Washington College at Chestertown the past term, and applied right off for a position as a teacher at Tilghman, this county. The School Trustees for that school gave him the job as Principal. The contract was sent up to Easton, and Birchwielder Burris was expected to show up later and sign. He didn't."

Mr. Burris is a resident of Quaker Neck and a young man of high character. He never signed the contract to teach at Tilghman's and the School Board knew it. Therefore they had no right to expect him. He has a fine position in Elmyra, N. Y.

WEDDING BELLS

BRYDEN—TAYLOR.

A very pretty yet quiet wedding was solemnized at the parsonage in Piney Neck on Thursday evening of last week, when Miss Ethel Taylor, of Baltimore, became the bride of Mr. John Harrison Bryden, of Piney Neck. The ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Olie H. Connelly, pastor of Piney Neck M. E. Church. The bride was becomingly attired in white all-over embroidery, while the groom wore the conventional black. Only a few immediate relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony. The happy couple will reside in Piney Neck.

SEWARD—DODSON.

Mr. William Seward, son of William Seward, of Chestertown, and Miss Edith Dodson, of Worton, Kent county, were married at the home of Mr. George Seward, in Church Hill, Wednesday evening. Mrs. Mabel Shellhouse was bridesmaid and Mr. Frank Green was best man. Misses Gladys Fleming and Gertrude Seward, neices of the groom were flower girls. Rev. E. H. Derrickson performed the ceremony. Refreshments were served and the bride and groom left for their home in Chestertown, where the groom has a good position.

NOTICE TO
All Persons Concerned

Hereafter the County Commissioners will neither recognize nor pay bills presented by any physician for any post mortem examination of bodies of dead persons. Nor will it pay any bills presented by Justices of the Peace for examining bodies of dead persons unless it can be shown that the Coroner is not accessible and unless the Coroner is first notified of any sudden death.

Only the bill of such physicians as the Coroner or Health Officer of the county may designate to make such an examination will be recognized or paid, and no other physician will be entitled to or receive pay for such services.

This action of the Board is taken because a practice has grown up in this county whereby the Coroner and his Physician examine bodies of the dead; and a Justice of the Peace in the county will summons a Physician and he and such physician examine the same body of such dead person; thus double bills are presented to the county for payment. The county will pay no charge of any peysician for such service exceeding $5.00

By order of the Board,
s21-tf SAM'L HICKS, Clerk.
