DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. Matilda Warfield Sheridan, wife of Rev. J. M. Sheridan, pastor of Broadway Methodist Protestant Church, died Sunday morning at the Maryland General Hospital of pneumonia, following an attack of blood poison.

About 10 days ago Mrs. Sheridan slightly scratched the palm of her hand with her scissors and a few days later it began to swell. Drs. Ridgely W. Warfield and J. M. H. Rowland were summoned and they found that blood poisoning had resulted.

An operation was performed, but the patient's condition showed little improvement. On Thursday pneumonia developed and Mrs. Sheridan was removed to the hospital. Her death saddened the entire congregation.

Mrs. Sheridan was born near Glenwood, Howard county, and was the daughter of the late George K. Ridgely. She was related to the Ridgely and Warfield families of Howard county. She was married to Rev. Dr. Sheridan in 1879. For the last five and a half years she has lived in Baltimore.

Rev. Dr. Sheridan was formerly president of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church. Until her health failed Mrs. Sheridan was prominent in church work and took an active interest in the Sunday-school, aid societies and young people's organizations. She was of lovely character and beloved by a host of friends in Worton and elsewhere.

She is survived by two sons, J. Ridgely Sheridan, of Fairmont, W. Va. and Jarrett M. Sheridan, Jr. of Baltimore, and two daughters, Mrs. Walter T. Morris, of Kent county, and Miss Hallie E. Sheridan.

Funeral services were conducted in Broadway Methodist Protestant Church Tuesday afternoon by Rev. Dr. J. S. Bowers, president of the Maryland Annual Conference, assisted by Rev. Dr. T. O. Crouse, pastor of Mount Royal Methodist Protestant Church; Rev. D. L. Greenfield, of Westminster, and Rev. J. W. Gray.

Burial in Oak Hill Cemetery, near Glenwood, Wednesday morning. The pallbearers were Rev. Dr. F. T. Little, Rev. C. S. Barrett, Rev. Dr. J. W. Kirk, Rev. G. W. Haddaway, Mr. Daniel Baker, Mr. Ruxton M. Ridgely; Mr. R. T. Jefferson and Mr. A. R. Lewis.

Charles McCollister died of paralysis at his residence, near Hayden, Queen Anne's county, Sunday morning, September 29, about 1 o'clock, aged 62 years, 1 month and 11 days.

The deceased was the youngest son of the late Judge Charles McCollister and Catherine McCollister—nee Godwin—and was born at the family homestead, near Price, August 18, 1850. He was happily married in 1890 to Miss Corinne Coppage, of Church Hill, sister of Mr. Joseph E. Coppage, and Mrs. Woodland P. Finley, who is left a widow with two children, Charles McCollister, Jr., and Miss Gladys McCollister to mourn the loss of husband and father. Besides the immediate family he is survived by one brother, and several nephews and nieces.

Funeral services were held at his late residence, near Hayden, at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, September 30 Interment in Church Hill Cemetery. The pall-bearers were Dr. S. C. Dudley, Edwin S. Valliant, Woodland P. Finley, Charles R. Walls, Thomas E. Roberts and Joseph E. Roberts.

William Curlett Robinson, a prominent and highly respected citizen, died at his home in the Seventh Election District of Queen Anne's County, Saturday morning, Sept. 21, of general debility. His wife, who died several years ago, was before marriage Miss Martha Woodall, daughter of the late D. Rochester Woodall. The floral tribute from the children consisted of seventy three American Beauty roses, one for each year of his age. Funeral services were conducted at his late residence Monday afternoon, Sept. 23, and interment was in Crumpton Cemetery. The deceased is survived by one brother, James A. Robinson, of Philadelphia, one sister, Mrs. Joseph Sharp, of Oceanside, California, and six children: Henry C., William A., John M., R. Woodall, Louis C., and Miss Mary E. Robinson.

The infant child, Woodrow Wilson, of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wheat, near Worton, died on Monday; aged 3 days. Interment at St. Paul's. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Hazel M., the 3-months old daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Newcomb, of Lynch, died on Saturday. Funeral was held Tuesday afternoon; interment in Still Pond cemetery Undertaker Wm. H. Krusen in charge.

ANOTHER WOMAN GOT BUNDLE

Mrs. Brown, of Chestertown, Loses Goods And Misses Boat.

A shopper from Chestertown, Kent county, found to her sorrow a few days ago that buying in the city is attended with more complications than in the small town.

Mrs. John W. Brown reported to the police that after she had bought a watch some lace, a coat a child hat, some stockings and jewelry at a department store and had paid $15.12 for the goods, some clever woman got the bundle and in the excitment she missed the steamboat on which she expected to return home in the evening.

Mrs. Brown made the purchases and had all the goods placed in one bunble. She then decided to make one more purchase. She left the large bundle on a counter and went a short distance away. A flourwalker picked up the bundle. A woman approached and said it belonged to her. It was given to her and she left the store. On Mrs. Brown's return the ruse was discovered. The police have a description of the woman who got the bundle.

Anty Drudge's Cure for the Blues.

Anty Drudge—"Won't you come home to tea with me, children?"

John—"Come on, Sally, you have had the blues all day. A little fresh air will do you good."

Mrs. Hardway—"No. I have to get up early to-morrow and get at the washing, so I want to get to bed early to-night."

Anty Drudge—"Of all silly creatures! I suppose you have been thinking about your washing all day. No wonder you are blue. Now just go and put your things on right away. When you get down to my house I will give you a few cakes of Fels-Naptha and your blues and blue Mondays will vanish forever, and John's only day home will be more pleasant in the future."

Isn't a short, smooth road better than a roundabout, rocky one?

Isn't that the road you would take by preference?

Well, the shorter, easier, smoother road in washing clothes is the Fels-Naptha way.

No rocks in your path; no boiling, hot fires, steaming suds, or hard rubbing.

Fels-Naptha banishes the disagreeable part of washing, takes out the backache, cuts the time to half, and makes the clothes cleaner and whiter than it is possible by the old-fashioned way.

Follow the simple directions on the red and green wrapper.
