My Dear Sir

Some time since when you wanted some money you encouraged me to get a temporary loan with the proceeds of that $500 freight bill when collected. I suppose you have overlooked it — or that it did not occur to you that I must close the temporary — & make some permanent arrangement. I do not want to stir up — or trouble to make up a statement of account — or any thing of that kind — but if you have any surplus money of the ship please send it — if not, say "just that & nothing more" — then I will know what to do.

I see the papers say the Golconda is going on a merchant voyage to Europe.

Yours
