Dr James Hall

Colonization Rooms, Baltimore.

II A 27

Dear Sir

Prof: Blyden writes April 10. that he has "begun a history of Liberia – a regular, ~~connected~~ nar= =rative, down to the present time": and that the "Maryland Colonization Journal from its commencement if possible to the time of its discontinuance, will be very serviceable to" him. Please make as perfect a set as can be and send to him at Monrovia by first opportunity.

Rev Albert Woodson complains that an arrangement which he made with you for the Cabin passage of his daughter in the Golconda, last November, has been violated in one not giving her emigrant support for six months after arrival. Was this the understanding with you?

Very respectfully Yours,

Wm Coppinger
