Columbus Ga. June 12.

Dr. Hall
Dear Sir

I wrote to Mr Coppinger to learn the expence of a passage from Liberia. He said that 50 dollars would be the price of a passage in the steerage and it must be paid before the ship leaves. Now I wish to inquire of you what time the Golconda will sail this fall? I wish to send the money for his return. My sons name is Alexander Temple. He was one of the last who sailed from Columbus and he is anxious to return as he went with the expectation of his wife & mother coming to him but not feeling satisfied he will return to Columbus. Please write me in [redacted]

Yours &c.
Lucy Johnson.
