another — setting forth the facts — & get them to publish in as Editorial. We are doing a large business in this way in the Southern papers.

Mr. Coppinger will leave here next Saturday for a two months or so tour through the South, to get the people ready to sail the 1st Nov. next. I should think that your State ought to furnish us two or three good families of good Character & Education & filled with a spirit to do something for their race in Liberia, to join the "Arlington" company. Can you tell us of any such to whom it would be worth while for us to apply. Have you read Prest. MacLeans speech made at Hartford Conn. in the July Repository? We have made a Tract of it for wide Circulation.

I hope you are all well! We as about as usual —

Yours faithfully
