PRISONERS BREAK JAIL

Spry, Edwards And Coleman Leave Sheriff McKee's Quarters Early Sunday Morning—A Wooden Key Made.

Three prisoners made their escape from the Chestertown jail at 2 A. M. Sunday. Those who escaped are A. Merritt Spry, convicted of violating the Local Option Law and keeping a gambling-house, and sentenced to 12 months in the House of Correction; John Edwards, convicted of the unlawful use of a team belonging to Robert J. McWhorter, and sentenced to six months in the House of Correction, and Arthur Coleman, a negro, convicted of larceny of a pair of pants from tailor Robinson, and sentenced to two years in the Penitentiary.

Sheriff McKee said that these men escaped either by means of a duplicate key to the corridor lock or pried the lock to the door. Several of the prisoners said that they were awakened about 2 o'clock Sunday morning by the noise of hammering. The sheriff found a wooden key in the cell of one of the escaped prisoners, and from this has surmised that there was a prearranged plan for an almost wholesale delivery of prisoners. As soon as the men had escaped they went to the stable of former Sheriff Medders for whom the negro Coleman worked before his arrest; stole the horse and drove to Betterton, where it is supposed they took the 4 o'clock boat for Baltimore.

They turned ex-Sheriff Medders' horse loose and started it back to Chestertown. The horse was found along the roadside by a colored man who brought it to town. As soon as Sheriff McKee learned of the escape of the men he notified all the cities and nearby towns.

There were 15 prisoners in the jail at the time of the escape and there might have been a general delivery, as the Sheriff was not awakened by the escape of the three, and found the corridor door open when he came to breakfast Sunday morning.

Coleman had a sister living with John Dent on Cannon street, whither he went and got some money and afterwards drove to Betterton.

Spry was last seen near Kirkwood, by W. C. Sutton and others. Edwards had been suffering (?) heart trouble and diarrhoea and was allowed the use of the hall and corridor and it was he who made the key.

The last jail delivery was by Latham.

It would be a good thing for Kent if these three remained away but we are confident they will be caught.

J. HENRY BAKER HONORED

J. Henry Baker, esq., of Baltimore, son of Hon. James H. Baker of Kent County has been elected at Portland, Maine, corporate member of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions to fill the vacany caused by the death of Justic David J. Brewer of the Supreme Court of the United States.

This election is considered a great honor, as it represents the oldest and most distinguished missionary organization—the agency of the Congregational churches in all parts of the world. It was organized in 1810 and has had a remarkable history for the last 100 years. It is the parent society of all the missionary organizatione of all the denominations in America. It has done remarkable work among the Indians of North America. It has transformed the Sandwich Island in the course of 75 years into a Christian nation. It has largely evangelized the island of the sea in Micronesia. Dr. Hirman Bingham and his little steamer, the Morning Star, being largely instrumental in the work. It has helped to create modern Japan by its college, the Doshisha, and the wonderful Joseph Neesima.

It has conducted large work in India and Natal and China. But some of its most effective work has been done for 50 years past in the Empire of Turkey, with the great Robert College at Constantinople and others educational institutions.

Mr Baker is a lawyer, a deacon of Associated Congregational Church and a trustee of Dickinson College. He is counsel for the Interchurch Federation. The next meeting of the American Board will be at Kansas City, Mo., in October, 1913.

More than $20,000,000 worth of freight car equipment has been contracted for this year by the Pennsylvania Railroad, according to an official announcement made by the Company yesterday. It was also stated that orders had just been placed for 5,000 freight cars, as additions to equipment.

This new order for additional freight cars is the latest, and probably the most important, of the extraordinary efforts the Pennsylvania Railroad is making to preclude any possibility of a car shortage on the lines of its System.

In June the Pennsylvania contracted for 4875 freight cars as additions to equipment, so that altogether its orders for additional rolling stock call for approximately 10,000 cars. This latest order was for 4,000 standard box cars, and 1,000 automobile cars. Three thousand box cars and 1,000 automobile cars will be built with all possible haste by the Pressed Steel Car Company; the remaining 1,000 box cars will be built in the Company's shops at Altoona.

To insure shippers on its lines adequate equipment for handling business, the Company is waging an active campaign to get the greatest possible service out of each of the freight cars owned by the System.

The Kind You Have Always Sought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

Anty Drudge Dries Miss Prettygirl's Tears.

Anty Drudge—"Why, what's the matter, dear? What are you crying about?"

Miss Prettygirl—"Oh, my beautiful new waist is ruined and it just makes me sick. That clumsy Will Johnson upset a plate of refreshments on it last night at the party, and spoiled all my fun."

Anty Drudge—"And his, too, I'll warrant. But dry your eyes, dear. It was all an accident, no doubt, but you feel so badly that you have to blame someone. Now if you had only known of Fels-Naptha you could have passed it off as a joke, enjoyed yourself and spared Will an uncomfortable time."

There's a right way and a wrong way to do everything.

And there is a new way and an old way to do almost everything.

The new way to wash clothes is the Fels-Naptha way—in cool or lukewarm water, no boiling, either in winter or summer, and little rubbing.

And the Fels-Naptha is the right way as well—saves time, saves the back, saves fuel, and the wash comes out cleaner, sweeter, whiter.

It is up to you to choose between the new and the old, the right and the wrong way of doing your washing.

Simple directions for washing and other household cleaning are printed on the inside of the red and green wrapper.
