My Dear Sir,—

Your very kind and highly esteemed favor of May 3rd, is received, & affords me much satisfaction to hear from you, but sorry to learn of your poor health. I hope it has improved. In regard to the $109— for the coffee, I would adopt your suggestion in having the amt invested in U.S. stocks, but for the fact of having promised my wife to order out some things for her & I will need the amount to assist in paying for them. She has been for some time desirous of doing a little retail business, of light articles, from which she thinks, she can realize something to assist us with our large family of little ones. She has prepared a list of what she wishes, which I enclose herewith, and beg to request of the favor to make the purchases and to forward the articles by the first opportunity. I learn from Washington that the "Golconda" will likely leave in November for Liberia. If she does, it will be a good opportunity for forwarding the things. But if it be determined that she will not be sent in November, you will please do us the favor to forward them by some vessel that
