WASHINGTON COLLEGE SWAMPS GALLAUDET

Washington College eleven defeated the squad from Gallaudet Saturday, 33 to 13, in the fastest game of the season. Although the playing of both teams was of the speediest character, Washington held odds on the visitors and crossed their goal line before the first two minutes of play.

The backfield of both teams played a particularly snappy game, but Gallaudet excelled in teamwork, their interference on end runs being impenetrable, and Moore, the visitors' fast little quarterback, ran again and again around his ends for long gains. Washington's backfield, while starring in individual playing, lacked team work, and many of their plays were nipped in the bud by the visitors' fast ends. Only the poor defensive work of the losers prevented the score being closer.

Washington won the toss and Cuscuaden kicked off to Bowen, who returned the ball to the 40 yard line. Washington charged through their opponents' tackles for gains of 15 and 20 yards. Within two minutes after the kick-off Biddle had placed the ball over the line for a touchdown. Wilkinson failed on goal.

On the next kick-off Jacobs again secured the ball and ran for over 50 yards down the field, only the fast work of Healy prevented his scoring. By end runs in this period they succeeded in making their first score.

Washington scored its second touchdown when Biddle, after the ball had been worked down the field by line plays, shot a beautiful forward pass to Meekins on the visitors's 20-yard line. Although repeatedly tackled, Meekins crossed the line.

In the second quarter Washington outplayed its opponents in every department of the game and ran them readily toward their goal. On a fake formation Branham ran down the side lines for another score.

The third quarter was distinctly Gallaudet's, and the ball at all periods was in Washington's territory. Only the locals hard work when near their goal line prevented the visitars from scoring more than one touchdown. The ball went over toward the last of the quarter, when on the fourth down, with a touchdown to make, the visitors failed on an attempted forward pass.

Washington drew their first blood in the last period, when Biddle again crossed the line after a succession of successful line plunges. The locals gained their last points when in the last three minutes of play Strong broke away on the visitors 30-yard line and ran down the field for another score.

Gallaudet succeeded in doing but little with forward passes, but Washington used theirs with gain in the latter stage of the game. The backfield on both teams did most creditable work, however. Moore, Meekins and Bowen starred for their respective teams, the latter duet displaying more class than has been witnessed on Washington Field this year.
