Having conducted the Clothing and Furnishing Goods Business in our town for the past twenty years and building up a substantial business by honest methods, we have decided to sell our entire stock at WHOLESALE PRICES unless we find an acceptable purchaser to close as a whole.

We have mutually agreed to dispose of our entire stock of CLOTHING, FURNISHINGS GOODS and HATS, either as a whole or by retailing same at wholesale prices.

This we decided to do after orders were placed for the various departments for Fall and Winter lines, which are now in full and complete, as usual, with the latest productions in Clothing, Hats, Caps, Neckwear, Sweater Coats, Gloves, Underwear, Shirts, Collars, Hosiery and all the various kinds of merchandise we have always offered.

This Sale Begins on Saturday, November 2

We prefer to sell as a whole and to an acceptable purchaser who desires to engage in the clothing business, we are prepared to show a substantial, lucrative business, already built up on a solid straightfoward basis.

If we don't close as a whole at once we will retail the various lines at MANUFACTURERS PRICES.

Men's Suits and Overcoats, Separate Trousers, Hats, Caps, Shirts, Uuderwear, Sweater Coats, Gloves, Collars, Neckwear, Hosiery, Boys' and Childrens Suits and Overcoats, Suit Cases

The primary reason for this sale is the increasing outside interests of the Junior Member requiring more of his attention, combined with mutual obvious minor ones. Appreciating the liberal patronage extended us for the past twenty years.

COLORED BOY KILLED.

George Johnson, a colored boy about 15 years old, was accidentally killed in Quaker Neck Tuesday while gunning for rabbits. He was getting over a barbed wire fence with his double-barrel gun when the gun was fired both loads taking effect in the boy's side. Help was soon at hand but the boy expired immediately.

FELL INTO THE FIRE

Sterling, the bright and interesting two-year-old son of S. P. Townshend, Esq., and wife, met with quite a serious accident Wednesday morning about 7 o'clock. The little fellow was playing in the sitting-room where an open fire in a grate burned. The mother was busy in an adjoining room when she heard Sterling give several piercing screams. She was horror-stricken when she saw him sitting in front of the fire with his face and hands black with soot and coal ashes while his clothing was in a blaze! Mrs. Townshend smothered out the fire and in doing so was slightly burned about her hand. Dr. Simmons was soon in the home and dressed the child's burns and at this writing he is getting along quite well. The result of the injury will not be known for some days.

BURNED TO DEATH!

Robert Walter, an aged colored resident of near Galena, attempted to build a fire with coal oil in his stove Saturday night and in doing so his clothing caught fire and he was fatally burned. He lived alone in his little cabin and was accustomed to using oil in kindling a fire. Billy Wilmer, is his neighbor and first noticed Walter's cabin on fire. He quickly ran over and saw his friend lying inside the doorway while the flames were rapidly consuming the house and its owner. Robert was pulled out but died early next morning. Nothing but ashes was left of the house. Undertaker Wm. T. Hicks buried Robert Tuesday and could not help from feeling rather sad at the duty as the deceased first worked for Mr. Hicks when he started in business at Galena.

RACES AND PARADE NEXT TUESDAY.

The opening races at the new Chestertown race track will be held next Tuesday afternoon. A big string of horses are entered for the different races and if weather is fair a big day is anticipated. The parade will be held in the morning at 10.30. Last Thursday's rain storm broke up the parade and races and they have been postponed to Tuesday.

LOCAL NOTES

Don't forget the entertainment in Fairlee Hall next Tuesday, Nov. 12th. It will be fine. Others will follow in Dec. Jan. and March. See other column for fuller particulars.

The fire alarm Monday drew a crowd to the home of Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., where a chimney was found to be on fire. The Fire Co. was quick to respond as were many others. The Telephone operators gave the alarm promptly. A singular incident occured in that Mr. Wickes' neighbors telephoned uptown to know where the fire was located and two young men in a boat nearby opposite the residence started uptown when they were turned in the opposite direction.

The Senior Class of Chestertown High School will give an entertainment Friday evening Dec. 6th, in the Assembly Room of their school. Particulars given later.

In another column is an announcement from the Sanitary Dairy, Chestertown. This Dairy is going to serve the people of this community with pasteurized milk, which means milk with all the germs taken out. Mr. Stinchecum is proprietor of this new business and its success is already assured by the great demand for wholesome milk. Mr. Harry Ricards, of Still Pond, will assist Mr. Stinchecum.

At the regular meeting of the Mount Vernon Literary Society last Saturday night, the following subject was debated: Resolved that we should have inter-society debates. On the affirmative were Messrs Landing and Leister; on the negative, Messrs. Parr and Pardew. The judges rendered their decision in favor of the negative.

The result of the vote Tuesday in the fifth grade at Chestertown High school was 18 Wilson, 3 Taft, 3 Roosevelt and 2 thrown out. One was marked simply "Democrat" and another for George Latham.

Personal * * * * and Social

Mr. Elmer Sterling, of Crisfield, is the new clerk in A. L. Sparks' big store. He is a brother to our popular druggist, "Doc." Sterling.

Col. Sam'l Rawleigh, of St. Mary's is visiting his sister in town. He says the big O in Frank Smith's name won him the office of Congressman. Mr. Smith is the conductor on the railroad.

J. Reese Murray, Esq., formerly of Chestertown, will shortly remove to Birmingham, Ala., to begin the practice of law. Mr. Murray has been prominent in the recent Trust investigations instituted by Atty-General Wickersham.

Miss Josephine Wheatley, teacher in the High School at Seaford, Del., spent Saturday and Sunday at home with her parents, Mr and Mrs. Wm. A. Wheatley.

Miss Hessner, of Philadelphia, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Baker, in Chestertown.

Mr. Eugene Lucas, son of the late C. M. Lucas, is visiting friends in town. "Gene" has made good since leaving town. He is now a manufacturer of ladies' hats, owns a big garage and is now riding in a racer which cost $2700. He has just returned from a European trip and makes the surprising statement that gasoline sells for 60 cents per gallon in England and 40 cents in France!

Dr. H. C. Hughes and wife are in New York for a week.

Mrs. H. S. Barnett and Mrs. Vernon N. Barnett are visiting friends in Delaware.

Miss Marie Smith has returned to her home after spending a week near Tolchester with her cousin, Miss Ethel Porter.

The marriage of Miss Natalie Hynson, daughter of Doctor and Mrs. Henry Parr Hynson, of Roland Park, formerly of Chestertown, to John Z. Bayless, of Juneab, Alaska, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Aruna Bayless, of Baltimore, will take place at 6 o'clock on the evening of November 27 at St. David's Protestant Episcopal Church, Roland Park. It will be followed by a small reception at the home of the bride.

BETTERTON NOTES

Miss Adele Smith, of Atlantic City, is spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith.

Mr. Earle Stone, of Port Carbon, Pa., was a recent visitor in town.

Rev. Guy and Clifton Owens are spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Owens.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Mann and Mrs. Cordray Loud visited Baltimore last week.

Mr. W. J. Carter, of Baltimore, was the guest of Mr. Howard Owens on November 1st, and enjoyed a day's duck shooting.

Mr. Joseph Atwell, of Worton, spent Wednesday gunning for ducks with Capt. John Brice.

Mr. George W. Owens bagged 34 good ducks in his sink-box on the Susquehanna flats on Monday.

Capt. A. H. Suplee made a business trip to Philadelphia on Tuesday.
