Eliza, Bill, Martha & Eudora." I have a faint remembrance that he brought them to Norfolk, & smuggled them aboard the ship — & went off. We receive no pay for them — there is on file no record of any application having made for them, no mention is made of them.

I do not know what to say, to free you from responsibility, for my impression is that you never knew any thing about them.
If I am mistaken about this, please say so. I inclose something, & if it not what you would like, tell me what you want — i.e. write it — & I will execute it.

I can say little in addition to what I have said formerly about our Nov. & Expedition. I think the ship will have to sail.
How many emgts. cannot tell. Mr. Coppinger thinks so from Nashville & from Columbus Ko. None: these are the only two places he had visited when he wrote last. We shall want her to sail from Savannah the 1st Nov. That will give you time to fit her out in Balt. before the cold
