SASSAFRAS NOTES

They tell us Mr. Woodrow Wilson is to be our next President. May the richest blessings of heaven be on his presidency. Mr. John Adams says there was only one Democrat defeated and that was himself.

Mrs Rev. W. W. White, who has been visiting friends in Norfolk, Va., and Salisbury, and Vienna, Md., has returned to her home in Sassafras.

Miss Nellie Jones is still on a visit to friends in Delaware.

Mrs. L. B. C. Morris, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Baltimore and Cockeysville, has returned after an absence of several weeks.

Mr. Jack Johnson will cease to farm another year and will go into the mercantile business at Golts.

Revival services have been announced to commence at the M. E. Church in Sassafras on to-morrow (Sunday) evening at 7 o'clock. The pastor desires a full attendance. There will be the usual preaching at Golts in the afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

STILL POND ITEMS.

Miss Edith Caldwell, of Galena, spent a few days with her cousin, Miss Mabel Norris.

Misses Ruby Pheffer and Ritta Grey, of Baltimore, returned home Thursday after visiting their aunt, Mrs. Charles Walter.

Mrs. Wm. Krusen and daughter Susie, and Mrs. Atwood Ricards visited Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Jarvis, Howard county.

Mr. Golden Warren visited Philadelphia the past week.

Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Collins, of Parsonsburg, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hurlock, of Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs. John Hurlock, of Wilmington, are visiting the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Price.

Quite a crowd of folks "serenaded" Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Ford at their home near here. After making all the fuss possible they were invited inside where all were served refreshments.

Mr. James Severson moved to Chestertwn Saturday where he will make his home with his daughter, Mrs. Arthur Bacon. Mr. and Mrs. John Jarvis will occupy the home he left.

Hurrah for Wilson!

GALENA ITEMS.

St. Andrews Protestant Episcopal Church has been obliged to discontinue its services for an indefinite length of time. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Robison, owing to failing health, has moved with his family to their former home in the South. The members and friends very much regret the necessity for such a move.

Holt Woodall, Jr., who has been to Wilmington receiving treatment from a throat specialist, returned home with his father on Friday last.

Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Townsend, of Cheswold, Del., visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L R. Vansant last week. Brother Townsend is an ex-pastor of Galena charge, having served Galena in that capacity from March, 1886, to March, 1889. He and his good wife have many friends here who are glad to welcome them back.

Rev. and Mrs. A. P. Prettyman and little daughter, Ethelee, of Millville, Del., spent a part of last week in town with Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Prettyman. Galena people feel that Bro. Prettyman and his family belong to us, and we are always glad to see them come Home.

Mr. Heston Ford, who has been out of town for some time, returned to his home on Friday.

Mrs. Duyer, of Chestertown, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jos. Woodall.

Among those from town who attended the Epworth League Convention at Cecilton were Rev. Alfred Smith, D. D., and wife, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Vansant, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Demsey, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Dempsey, Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Dempsey, Mrs. Kate Hyland, Mrs. F. H. Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Caldwell, Mrs. Walter Hadley, Misses Pearle Ford, Maida Muldoon and C. M. Dempsey; Messrs. N. V. Walters, Robert Fogwell, Wm. Fogwell and Jas. Caldwell. An interesting feature of the convention was the Junior League Banner, which was offered by Central Office at Chicago to the District gaining the most points along all lines of work. This Banner was won by our Easton District. There are about 400 delegates in the United States, not to mention Canada, so Easton District moy well be proud of her Junior Leagues.

Sunday, the "World's Temperance Day," was appropriately observed in Olivet M. E. Church. From the splendid discourse of the morning by Dr. Alfred Smith, text Matt. 26: 15, "And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver," on through the Sabbath sch ol session and the special Temperance program for the evening, the great curse of intemperance was faithfully presented. But more striking it would seem than any of these were the two object lessons that came directly under the notice of the people last Saturday night.

Mr. I. L. Dempsey driving through the branch called "Swantown," late in the evening found a term stopped there with the wagon in the stream, the horse standing to bank. The occupant, a fine looking young man, was unconscious and very near death when found, owing to the position, in which he had fallen. Mr. Dempsey brought the young man and his team home and cared for him until next morning when he was able to resume his journey. The man had been to Middletown. Confessed that this was positively his first "drunk," although he occassionally took a little drink. It nearly proved his last. Young Men Beware.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

The invitation extended by Rev. Mr. Prettyman, of the M. E. Church, to Rev. Mr. Dupuy and his parishioners of the M. P. Church to hold a union service at the M. E. on Sunday morning, was unanimously accepted, and as a result the church auditorium was packed with the two congregations, and the concensus of opinion was that "the scene was a comforting sign of the times." Rev. Mr. Dupuy delivered the sermon: subject, "One flock, united, of one Lord, faith and baptism." The 21st verse of the 17th chapter of John's Gospel was the text used. The sermon was one of "point, pith and power," and best of all was God given. The two congregations held a union service at the M. P. Church at night, which was productive of happy results.

The ladies of the Rebekah Lodge I. O. O. F., of this place, will hold a benefit supper in Coburn's Hall next Thursday evening. All the delicacies of the season will be served, and as prominent visitors from Baltimore will be present and address the audience at the finish of supper, a royal good time is promised.

Owing to the copious showers of the day, the P. O. S. of A. initiatory team, of Baltimore, failed to put in an appearance at the P. O. S. of A. Camp here on Friday evening of last week. Nevertheless a large assemblage of the local members were present, and the following gentlemen (a part of the large class of candidates-elect for initiation) Herbert Elburn, Melvin Rodney, Marion Rodney, G. M. Coleman, N. G. Ryan, Norman Hodges, W. B. Hickey and Jas. Higgins, were duly inducted into the mysteries of the order, after which refreshments were served, interspersed with song and music. If the high officials of the State Camp hope to reach 10,000 mark in membership and the 100 mark in camps ere the year closes, they bad better see to it that their promises are better fulfilled than they were toward Rock Hall. The little matter of a rainy day ought not to interfere with their plans.

The Young Men's Bible Class of the M. E. Sunday School presented a token of their appreciation to the Superintendent a snug sum of money Sunday afternoon. Mr. Bliss Sommers, on behalf of the class, made the presentation in brief but well chosen remarks. On receiving the token, which was concealed in an envelope unmarked, the superintendent, Rev. Mr. Prettyman, inquired if there was dynamite in the package. Being assured there was not he opened it, and was surprised at the contents. Soon recovering, he made appreciative response.

The handsome chandelier in the M. E. Church, which has not been in use since the installation of the gasoline lamps, was sold to the colored M. E. Church at Sharptown last week.

Mr. Clarence Akers returned to his home here on Tuesday from the hospital, where he has been undergoing treatment for injuries received in a motor boat accident several weeks ago. His leg is still in plaster cast, but he is able to get about with the assistance of crutches.

The election passed off very quietly here, and at this writing joy over the result reigns supreme.

The telephone service to and from this place on election day was the best ever.

Max Alexander's bargain sale No. 2 for November was the biggest kind of a rush all day Wednesday.
