I am sorry to say that Mr. Coppinger is not succeeding as we hoped he would. At Columbus Ga. he has found nobody going. A man has just returned in the "Jasper" who went from there — a smart fellow — & he has awful tales to tell. & the papers gladly print them — & he is a lion thus now — & all our people are gone!

Are you not sorry for your friend "Turner?" When he received that letter, think you not there was not an exhibition of a pair of white eyeballs in "fine phrensy rolling?"

I think you are pretty hard on the Hon. W. C. R. considering the maxim "de mor. nil nisi"

Yours truly,
W. McSherry
