Liberian Government. This, I apprehend, will detain me at which longer, and make it uncertain as to when I shall be turning homeward. I shall be going to Washington, I presume, in the course of eight or ten days, and shall be glad of an opportunity of seeing you again before leaving the Country.

I hope the Summer has greatly improved, if not entirely restored your health, and that you are now able to get around comfortably without either Cane or Crutch.

Mrs Roberts desires to be most kindly remembered to you and all the family. Her health has been quite variable, sometimes suffering very much, from first one cause and then another – I am glad to say, however, that at present she is in pretty comfortable health. I have had two or three pretty severe attacks of dysentery since I saw you – for a few days at Saratoga quite ill. I am now daily improving, I think, in strength and energy – so much for your American climate

I remain
My dear Sir
Very truly yours
J. J. Roberts
