My Dear Sir

Yours of the 16 came by the late mail, after I had left the office. I am sorry that such a trouble has been to you. Mr. Coppinger did not get my letter about putting off the sailing to Dec. 1 — and so made no change — When he came home, I suppose he had seen you — & told you all about it — I now he is not here — but I say the ship will sail Nov. 1 — & will stop at H. Roads & thereabouts for coals. — So I understand it — I expect him next tuesday evening or Wed 7 — I have a terrible headach —

Yours

R. McSain
