you, I reckon she has had respect to the Board's offer of Cabin passage for herself & children at Steerage price! I think it is right high in the Ex. Rex. to stickle for two staterooms under all the circumstances.

It occurs to me that if there is any thing in your accounts that will need explanation to our Ex. Com. that you had better write it, so that it can go to the Board in your own language, in case there is any call for it. I have no doubt that there will be such a prying into our expenses as there has not been for
