MIGHTY MICHIGAN WINS SILVER CUP

Finishes Third Of More Than 100 Cars In 108 Mile Race

The following telegram was received at the Michigan factory, in Kalamazoo, July 10th:

"V. L. Palmer:

Michigan Forty finished third in road reliability race—Camden to Wildwood, New Jersey—one hundred and eight miles. Over one hundred cars entered. Pierce Arrow first. Our prize: Silver Cup. Car driven by Dr. Faulkner, of Bridgeton, New Jersey.

E. F. GERBER."

This is one of many similar performances that the Mighty Michigan Forty has given this season.

The even balancing of all parts to match the strength represented by the Mighty Michigan Motor and Chassis is a characteristic which has become distinctive of this Car. It is asserted that this accounts for the sensational success of the Michigan among medium priced cars. It is an illustration of the value of thirty years manufacturing success behind the product.

Roofing

This is the season of the year when buildings of all kinds need a new roof. Bad weather is coming soon and you want to protect crops, stock, etc., from its effects. We have anticipated your needs along this line, and are better prepared than ever before to serve you. We have in stock Rubber Roofing in ½, 1 and 2 Plys, at 79c to $2.50 per square. A splendid Rubber Roofing in 2-Ply at $1.75 per square. We have sold considerable of this and much of it to people who are judges of roofing.

Corrugated Iron

Prices have advanced very materially on this commodity, on account of the high cost of galvanizing; but we are yet in position to make attractive prices for delivery from our large stock. Ours is all No. 26 Guage. Don't pay as much for Nos. 28 and 29 Guage. Be sure you get No. 26 Guage. Open Hearth.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. Frances Pennington, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Bonwill, near Still Pond, on Tuesday morning, of general debility aged 87 years. The remains will be taken to Hillsboro for interment, funeral services in the Episcopal Church in that town on Thursday morning. Undertaker Wm. H. Krusen, of Still Pond.

REV. ROBERT S. ROWE DEAD.

Rev. Robert Semple Rowe, the oldest minister of the Maryland Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, and founder of Allnutt Church, Lombard and Chester streets, died on Thursday morning at his home, 1820 North Washington street, Baltimore. Dr. Rowe has been retired from the active ministry for a number of years on account of his feeble health. During the 50 years or more of service he has been pastor of many of the leading churches in the conference, and has become well known to nearly all members of the denomination in the State. He was a native of Fredericksburg, Va., and was 80 years old. Deciding while a youth that he wished to enter the ministry he preached while a young man at first in small churches and later was assigned to places where the opportunities for the aggressive young minister were brightest. His most important work was the organization of Allnutt Church and the building of the church edifice. This congregation, started by him, is now one of the largest in the conference.

From it came Rev. John S. Bowers, now the president of the conference, and its present pastor, Rev. Dr. F. T. Little, is a former president of the conference. Dr. Rowe, after filling smaller pulpits, retired a few years ago, even small congregations involving more work than he was able to do, and has since then made his home in Northeast Baltimore, where he was well known.

He leaves a widow and a daughter, Mrs. E. H. Shelley, of Brooklyn, and a son, George G. Rowe, of Washington.

WEDDING BELLS

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Reed announce the engagement of their daughter, Ollie Warfield, of Chestertown, to Mr. John Herbert Councill, of Wilmington. The wedding will take place near Xmas.

Miss Sara K. Woodall and Mr. William A Hyland, of Galena, Md., were quietly married at the home of the bride's mother at Georgetown, Md., on Thursday, November 21. Miss Woodall is the daughter of the late Andrew W. Woodall, who was for many years a prominent member of the Baltimore Chamber of Commerce. No cards in the county.

The wedding of Miss Helen Marie Dilhofer and Walter Stephen Kirby, of Rock Hall, took place Saturday at Sacred Heart Church, Rev. James F. Fraser officiating. They came from Rock Hall in a gaily decorated carriage.

The wedding of Miss Mary Lydia Layman, a former popular young lady of Chestertown, and Mr. Thos. C. Jones, of Smyrna, Del., were married on Monday morning in Wilmington by Rev. George L. Wolfe. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, hat and gloves to match. The groom is a passenger brakeman on the Delaware Division. They will reside in Philadelphia.

Miss Hallie Smith Kelley, formerly of Chestertown, was married on Monday of last week to Mr. James Clarke, of Baltimore. The ceremony took place at South Hill, Va., where the bride has been employed as milliner.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Mr. Clarence A. Greenwood, of Townsend, Del., formerly of Fairlee, this county, and Miss Carrie Jacobs, of Aberdeen. The ceremony took place Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Ava Davis announces the wedding of her daughter, Miss Reba Davis, the faithful secretary in the Prudential Insurance office, to Mr. W. Claude Hackett, formerly of Still Pond. It took place in Wilmington Wednesday, Rev. C. E. Poole officiating. They will reside in Philadelphia, where the groom is employed by the Pullman Company. He served in the navy three years.

DAVIS—MINNER.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Minner, 61 Ridgewood, Ave, Newark, N. J., was the scene of a pretty wedding last Wednesday when their youngest daughter, Anna Weigand, became the wife of Mr. Jas. Asbury Davis, of Newark, N. J. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jos. A. Weigand, of Newark, uncle of the bride.

The wedding party entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohns wedding march, the bride leaning on the arm of her father who gave her away and were met by the groom and best man in a bower of palms where the ceremony was performed.

The bride was gowned in a draped model of white satin charmeuse entrain trimmed with duchess lace and Valley Lillie. Her tulle veil was fastened with Valley Lillie and she carried a bouquet of bride roses.

Miss Emily Middleton, of Smyrna, Del., cousin of the bride, gowned in nile green satin veiled in crystall net and carrying white chrysanthemums was the bride's only attendant.

Mr. Lloyd Van Keuren, of Weihawken, N. J., was best man, Messrs. Samuel S. and W. Leslie Minner, brothers of the bride, acted as ushers. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Jas. Godfrey, of Newark, accompanied on the violin by Mr. Hagney, of Newark.

After the ceremony which was witnessed by about sixty guests a reception was held after which the bride and groom left for the home of the groom's parents in Maryland to be present at a family reunion on Thanksgiving Day.

The bride received many beautiful presents among which was a chest of silver from her parents. The bride's traveling suit was of brown eponge cloth with hat trimmed with brown plumes

HALL—WALLS.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Pauls Methodist Episcopal Church, Ingleside, Wednesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, when Miss Mary E. Walls, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Walls, and Mr. James Frank Hall, son of the late J. F. Hall, of Church Hill, were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. J. P. Stump, pastor of the church.

The bride wore a becoming blue tailormade traveling suit with hat to match and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

The ushers were Messrs. Leonard and Samuel C. Walls and William Hall and H. V. Gould. Miss Edna Walls, sister of the bride, played the wedding march, and skillfully rendered Lohengrin's march as the party entered the church. "O, Promise Me," was played during the ceremony.

The young couple will reside near Church Hill, where the groom is engaged in farming.

SMITH—BENNETT

On Tuesday evening, November 12, a quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. Frank Bennett at Cecilton, Md., when his daughter, Miss Alice Paulina Bennett, was united in marriage to Mr. Daniel Everett, son of Mr. James Smith, of Cecilton.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. George L. Hardesty pastor of Zion M. E. Church, Cecilton. The bride wore a charming gown of white chiffon cloth and carried roses and lillies of the valley.
