SATURDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1912.

THE fight for the U. S. Senatorship in Delaware is waxing warm The Delaware Legislature will elect a Democrat to succeed Senator Richardson (Rep.), and Willard Saulsbury, Richard Kenney and L. Irving Handy are said to be making a house to house canvas of the members-elect of the Delaware Legislature, each adducing substantial reasons why the toga should come to HIM. "Dick" Kenney is said to be leading up to date.

MRS. ASH, of the Cecil Democrat, says: "Strip the Jackson of his purse and his consequence among men would be a negligible quantity.

From Isidor Rayner to William P. Jackson is a far call downward, but the elevation of the cash shows to the state and the nation, the true appreciation of a Maryland governor.

Democrats have nothing but congratulations for themselves on the choice; if it meets the approval of the defunct Republican party in this State, it stamps that organization with a post mortem odium. If it serves as a red rag to the bull progressives, and removes them farther from the fold—so much the better. It is a real case of ill done and good is sure to come of it."

JUDGE CONSTABLE SWORN IN

His Brother, Henry L., Succeeds Him As State's Attorney.

Elkton, Md., Dec. 6.—Chief Judge-elect Albert Constable, of Elkton, took the oath of office last Friday afternoon before the clerk of the Circuit Court, Cecil Kirk, succeeding Chief Judge James Alfred Pearce, of Chestertown, on the bench in the second judicial circuit embracing the counties of Cecil, Kent, Caroline, Talbot and Queen Anne's.

Judge Constable's first official act was in administering the oath of office to his brother, Henry L. Constable, who succeeds him as State's Attorney for Cecil. The appointment of Mr. Constable as State's Attorney was made by the court.

Both Judge Constable and State's Attorney Constable were congratulated by the members of the bar and others after taking the oath of office. Judge Constable is a native of Elkton, 41 years of age, and a son of the late Albert and Elizabeth Groome Constable.

He has been a prominent member of the local bar for a number of years, and for the past six years has held the office of State's Attorney for this county. He was elected last month, being the nominee of the Democratic party, and having no opponent on the Republican ticket. He is married and has four children, three daughters and one son.

NO CLASHING.

Democrats And Republicans Get Together on Appointments—Approval of Democratic Senators Necessary to Confirmation of Apoointees in Former's Own States.

No clash will take place between the Democrats and Republicans of the Senate over the confirmation of appointments now made or which may hereafter be made by the President.

A tentative understanding has been reached by the leaders of the two parties whereby a fight, that promised to be unseemly, over the remaining patronage of the Taft administration will be avoided.

As the matter has now shaped itself, no Federal appointee will be confirmed by the Senate if he is to hold office in a State represented by a Democratic Senator, and if that Senator finds the appointment objectionable. It will not be necessary for the Senator in question to produce witnesses or evidence to disqualify the appointee. All he will have to do is to say he does not want the man and that will end it.

Appointments that may be made in those States now represented by Republican Senators may be confirmed if no question is raised by Democratic Congressmen who may be directly interested. Nominations may be confirmed in spite of such Congressmen, but that point is to be settled in each individual case.

This means that the Democratic Senators have it in their power to hold up the confirmation of any or all the appointments made affecting their States. If they make no objection to this man or that, then the appointee may have his job. If objection is raised, the appointment is to be stowed away in the files and forgotten.

Such an understanding as this puts the confirmation of Postmaster Harris' successor in Baltimore squarely up to Senator John Walter Smith. He can with one word prevent this successor from taking the office and serving during pratically the whole of the Wilson administration, as also at Millington.

Senator Jackson may insist upon confirmation, but if he does he is apt to find that the Republican machinery of the Senator is against him and that he will get no sympathy. He would probably not be very vigorous under such circumstances.

THE estate of the late Senator Rayner is estimated at an even million dollars "Algonquin Manor," his summer home has been sold to Mrs. C. Hazeltine Basshor, of Baltimore. The home cost in the neighborhood of $70,000, but it is understood that the sale to Mrs. Basshor will approximate $31,000.

DON'T forget the Band Minstrels in Stam's Hall next Friday night. This concert is for the benefit of the Chestertown Band and it is hoped a full house will greet the "boys." A jolly time is promised. See ads. in this issue.

THE Housekeepers' League, of Philadelphia, sold 150,000 dozen eggs Wednesday in various sections of the city in their campaign to break the corner which they claim has been maintained by retail dealers there. Eggs that have been selling for from 27 cents to 49 cents a dozen were sold by the women at 24 cents. Such was the demand at the 40 stations in operation that only the inability to secure enough candlers prevented even a larger number being disposed of. An extra force of candlers has been engaged to work all night in order to have a supply ready.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

Bulletin.

CONVENIENT TRANSPORTATION FACILITIES

The Pennsylvania Railroad, by main lines, branches, subsidiary lines and connections, covers the Eastern country so completely that the people of almost every community may avail themselves of its facilities.

The lines reach the cities, the big towns and the little towns, so that whether the impulse to travel be for business, pleasure, or social purposes, it may be satisfactorily carried out, as far as transportation facilities are concerned, by taking a Pennsylvania Railroad train at the nearest point.

Through cars are operated over the lines between all important centres of population, and an excellent dining car service is available at the usual hours for meals on the through trains. The all-steel equipment of the trains adds greatly to the security and comfort of the passengers.

The spirit of the holiday season stimulates the wish to travel, and the facilities of the Pennsylvania Railroad and its connections appeal with equal force to the home-coming young folks and the migrating people of maturer years.

The comprehensive train service, apart from the local trains well known in each community, covers a wide extent of territory.

BETWEEN THE EAST AND THE WEST

There are splendid limited trains between New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Harrisburg, Altoona, Pittsburgh, and points in the West, notably Chicago and St. Louis. Included among these are the "BROADWAY LIMITED," the 20-hour train between New York and Chicago; the 24-HOUR ST. LOUIS," to St. Louis and Chicago; "THE PENNSYLVANIA LIMITED," to Chicago, St. Louis, Cleveland, and Cincinnati; and the "CHICAGO LIMITED," to Chicago, Cincinnati, and Cleveland. These are all-Pullman trains and provide the highest grade of service. In addition there are a number of express trains to Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, Columbus, Cleveland, Toledo, Detroit, and other important centres of the Middle West, which provide both Pullman and all-steel coach service. Among these are the "Chicago Special," "Chicago Express," "St. Louis Express," "Western Express," and the "Cleveland, Cincinnati, and Chicago Express."

TO THE SOUTH

Those contemplating a trip South, to the resorts of the Carolinas, Georgia, Florida, and the Gulf Coast, will find a number of fine trains between the important terminal cities of the Pennsylvania Railroad; and cars to the more important cities of the South, running through from and to New York via Washington, Baltimore, and Philadelphia. On January 6, 1913, the through Limited Trains between New York and Florida will be placed in service.

COMMERCIAL CENTRES LINKED.

An examination of the time tables of the Pennsylvania Railroad will show that practically all important commercial centres on its lines and connections are linked by through trains, through cars, or convenient connections, affording accommodating service.

Anyone who wishes to go anywhere should consult the nearest Ticket Agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad. He can give all the information a traveler requires.
