Colonization Rooms,
Washington D.C. 26 July 1870

My Dear Sir

Yours of the 25th is received. My feeling has been that we cannot sell the ship, even under the little war excitement, & that we shall be obliged to keep till the fall — and if we do not send her men with a company of emigrants it will not be for the lack of anxiety & the doing of every conceivable on our part. But if we have not got the money & cannot get it, what can we do. —

I am sorry to hear that your office has been broken in upon & such mischief made. But as to the vouchers you speak of, I think you need not worry much. They are not so numerous but you can easily get duplicates if necessary.
