My Dear Sir

Yours of the 4th came only this morning. I am glad that you think that somebody will insure for us in the Golconda. I reckon that we shall send her Nov. 1st. We have determined to send her, or something else, money or no money, & some emigrants. We suppose that two hundred could easily be gotten ready — & more than that too if we only had the man to go down to N. C. & look after getting them ready. Do you know where he is? or who he is? We ought to have enough, so that we can send them cheaper in our own ship, than in a chartered one, or one engaged in the African trade, which is now the dodge among some of our friends — who know less
