Order of Publication.

Walter R. McIntyre, Annie Elizabeth Wilmore, colored, versus
All Unkown Heirs of Edward Hall, colored, deceased.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County in Equity. No. 1837.

THE object of the Bill is to procure a decree for the sale of the real estate of Edward Hall, colored, deceased.

The Bill states:

1. That Edward Hall, colored, was in his life time indebted unto Walter R. McIntyre, one of the above named complainants, in the full and just sum of fifteen dollars ($15.00) on the balance of an open account for work on well and pump, and was also indebted in his life time to Annie Elizabeth Wilmore, colored, the other of the above named complainants, in the full sum of fifty dollars ($50.00) on an open account for personal attention, nursing, medicine and board, from December 1st, 1911, to February 10th, 1912, and from July 10th, 1912, to October 15th, 1912.

2. That the said Edward Hall, being in his life time so indebted as aforesaid, unto your orators and also unto divers other persons and being seized and possessed of real estate, located in the First Election District of Kent county aforesaid, near Galena, departed this life intestate on or about the 25th day of October, 1912.

3. That the said Edward Hall, deceased, left no personal estate of any kind, and no letters of administration have been granted on his estate by the Orphans' Court of Kent county, as appears by the certificate of the Register of Wills, filed herewith, and marked "Plaintiffs' Exhibit No. 1."

4. That the said Edward Hall was never married and that it is unknown to your orators whether or not he left surviving him any heirs at law.

5. That the real estate of which the said Edward Hall died seized and possessed consists of a lot of land situated on the south of the public road leading from Chestertown to Galena, and near said town of Galena, in what is called Lower Branch, and contains about one acre of land, on which is a small frame house.

6. That said real estate formerly belonged to Thomas Hall, colored, whose wife's name was Susan Hall, and that the said Thomas Hall being seized and possessed of said real estate, departed this life intestate about twenty five or thirty years ago, and that the said Susan Hall his wife, died about the same time, and that the said Thomas Hall left surviving him the following children as his heirs at law, namely: Henry Hall and the said Edward Hall. And that the said Henry Hall being seized and possessed of an undivided one-half interest in said real estate departed this life intestate about the year nineteen hundred and nine or nineteen hundred and ten, without ever having married and left surviving him as his only heir at law his brother, the said Edward Hall.

7. That so far as your orators know, or have been able to ascertain, the said Edward Hall left surviving him no paternal or maternal ancestor, and no descendant of such ancestors or either of them.

8. That your orators are advised that as there is no personal estate of the said Edward Hall, deceased, for the payment of his debts, that your orator and his other creditors are entitled to have their claims paid out of the real estate of said Edward Hall, deceased.

It is thereupon this 20th day of November, 1912, ordered by the Circuit Court of Kent county, in Equity, that the Plaintiffs by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent county once in each of four successive weeks before the 23rd day of December next, giving notice to the said All Unknown Heirs of Edward Hall, colored, deceased, warning them to appear in this court, in person or by solicitor, on or before the 6th day of January next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

WE CAN FURNISH MORE

Persons For Other Offices and the Western Shore Had Better Learn to Move.

The Eastern Shore may lack oil, iron, and coal and her natural products may show diminution, but in inverse ratio to this decrease is the increase of the Eastern Shore's capacity to secure the highest honors of the State. Here is the present record of the Eastern Shore in holding high honors and offices: Two United States Senators, Governor, Secretary of State, President of the Senate, State Comptroller, State Insurance Commissioner, two members of the State Road Commission, Superintendent of State Statistics, one member and manager of the State Bureau of Immigration, Superintendent of the Public Schools, superintendent of the Hospital for the Insane, at Sykesville, and of the new Hospital for the Insane of the Eastern Shore, Superintendent of the House of Correction, Naval Officer, chief clerk in the office of Collector of Internal Revenue, chief clerk in the office of State Comptroller, State Banking Commissioner, State Motor Vehicle Commissioner, two Directors of the House of Correction.

The occupants of all these offices are not now residents of the Eastern Shore. Perhaps those ex-Eastern Shoremen now holding office found competition so keen at home that they had to come to Baltimore or remove to other sections of the state to make a livelihood. There are others, numerous other Eastern Shoremen who occupy smaller positions including places at the Agricultural College, Normal School, in the hospital for the insane and in other state institutions, but they are not here classified.

For over 30 years the Eastern Shore has held the record as a favored land for bestowal of honors. Of the eight Governors in 30 years the Eastern Shore has had five. Since and including 1886 there have been 14 Presidents of the State Senate. Of these 14, 7 have been Eastern Shore. And it was always thus.

Way back yonder in 1804 to be precise, the state was threatened with what was considered at the time to be a serious menace. In a deadlock the Eastern Shore stood chance of electing both United States Senators. The Western Shore men could not unite on a candidate, but they could muster enough strength and erect a banner to prevent the "Favored Land" from swallowing both honors. They passed a law requiring that one of the senators should be an Eastern Shoreman and one a Western Shoreman. This law was unconstitutional on its face, since it limited the boundary of the residence of a United States senator. In the late sixties it was repealed by the Democrats in order to elect Governor Swan senator as a reward for his services in their behalf. Just as soon as Governor Swan found it to be advisable to decline the senatorship and to remain governor the law was re-enacted, and Mr Vickers, of Kent, was elected.

The law was respected until 1896 when it was violated in the election of George L. Wellington to the Senate. Mr. Gorman was then the Western Shore senator. Mr. Wellington succeeded Charles H. Gibson, who had been elected to the full term of the late E. K. Wilson, who died while in office. Mr. Gibson was appointed by Governor Jackson to succeed Mr. Wilson before he was elected. Before the Legislature of 1896 adjourned it repealed the old Eastern Shore law by a clause which was hidden away in the election law. Several spasmodic efforts have been made to revive it, but they have not been seriously pushed says the Baltimore American.

MODERN WOODMAN RATES.

Judge Shirley, on November 22, 1912, in the suit of Wallace, et al, vs. Modern Woodmen of America and the members of the Executive Council, brought to prevent the Society from putting into effect the new assessment rates adopted in January last, at the adjourned Chicago session of the Head Camp, rendered his decision, and on November 27th, he signed a decree in said case, containing an injunction the Society from enforcing, while said injunction shall be in force, the collection of assessment rates adopted at said Chicago Head Camp meeting. Judge Shirley's decision and decree are published in full in the December issue of the official paper. The effect of this decision is to continue all certificates in force at the old rate.

VICTIMS OF GRIDIRON.

Ten killed and 183 injured constitutes the toll collected from the gridiron during the season of 1912. Despite assertions that the game of 1912 differed little from the old-style plunging game the list of dead is the smallest since 1901 when seven lost their lives. Five more injuries were reported this year than in 1911, but the record is short of that, of 1909, when 30 were killed and 216 injured, or that of 1910, when 22 succumbed and the injured numbered 499.
