Market Street, Pittsburgh

Dear Brother

In my letter to you, dated August 25, I mentioned that I had written, that day, to Wm Coppinger, Cor. Sec. Am. Col. Soc., Washington, "to ask if Mrs Freeman can have a cabin passage at half price as formerly voted." He answers:—

"We shall be happy to furnish cabin accomodations at half rates to Mrs Freeman and her children. The Board authorized this and we arranged to take her last fall, but her sickness alone prevented. I don't think we are called upon to do this for her by an outside vessel when we are on the eve of dispatching an expedition of our own."

Our Board will vote I hope one hundred dollars towards paying the other half. What are the names and ages of the children?

With much regard
Yours truly
Thomas S. Malcom
